

PUBLIC HEARING

For Alleged Violation of the Eight
Hour LawWill Be Given Trades and Labor Council—Sewer Men May Be Put on Four Hour Shifts and Their Number Reduced

The Trades and Labor council have asked for a public hearing on what the council alleges to be a violation of the eight-hour law, having in mind the sewer bosses who are working twelve hours a day. Action in the matter was taken at the last meeting of the council and the following letter, which is self-explanatory, has been addressed to the mayor:

Lowell, Mass., June 22, 1908.

Hon. F. W. Farnham, Mayor, City of Lowell.

Dear Sir:

By a vote of our council at its meeting June 21, 1908, I was instructed to write you and request that you set a date for a public hearing on the violation of the eight-hour law.

A committee consisting of one delegate from each craft affiliated with our council was appointed to attend the hearing and we wish the board of aldermen, common councilmen, heads of departments and City Solicitor Hill be requested to attend the hearing and have the matter discussed that a fair understanding may be had by all.

Trusting that you will arrange for an early hearing, I remain,
Respectfully yours,

A. W. Hersome,
Secretary Pro Tem.

Mayor Farnham will arrange for the hearing to be held next Wednesday evening, and the city messenger has been instructed to send out the necessary notices.

Supt. Morse of the street and sewer departments has already expressed himself on the matter. He has only four or five sewer bosses and between 500 and 600 men to be bossed. The men are working six hour shifts, and in order to keep them at work Mr. Morse says it is necessary for the bosses to work twelve hours.

"I can make it a four-hour shift," said Mr. Morse, and the about half the number of men. My bosses, however, are willing and anxious to work twelve hours a day in order that the other five or six hundred men may get their bread and butter out of it."

City Solicitor Hill allows that any law which would prevent or interfere with a man working more than eight hours a day, providing he wanted to work more than eight hours, would be unconstitutional on the very face of it, and he has already given an opinion to that effect.

ON FULL TIME

Good News From Bigelow Carpet Co.

The selling department of the Bigelow Carpet company, which, for the past few months has been running four days a week, started this week on full time. As this department is one of the principal ones of the mill and as a great quantity of the axminster work is done there, it will undoubtedly necessitate the starting up, on full time, of many other departments of the company.

WOMEN DELEGATES

ENJOYED A TRIP TO NEWPORT TODAY.

BOSTON, June 26.—Relieving the monotony attendant on the continued consideration of business matters the greater part of the delegation to the convention of women's clubs today took advantage of the general committee's arrangements for a "play day" and left this city for Newport, R. I., where a continuous program of entertainments and festivities has been arranged for their benefit. More than 1000 left on two trains from the South station during the early forenoon.

The trains left with an interval of fifteen minutes and on the arrival of the first section at the station in Newport it had been arranged to have carriages in waiting to take them for a short drive to Easton beach, where preparations were made for the serving of a real Rhode Island clam bake dinner.

The program for the afternoon included a steamer excursion up Newport bay by the entire party, a visit to the United States naval training station and numerous side trips. The exodus of the Newport party of federation women did not take more than one-third of the clubwomen from the city and during the day the seashore resorts in the vicinity of Boston and those places in the suburbs which had attractions in the form of summer parks or points of historic interest were much patronized by women wearing the convention badges.

Upon the return, which was expected in the early evening, it had been anticipated that the delegates would

BAD ACCIDENT IN POLICE COURT

Mrs. Chas. L. Charron
Met With Injury

Mrs. Charles L. Charron, wife of Rev. Mr. Charron, pastor of the French Congregational church, and Miss Martel, residing at 76 June street, figured in a runaway accident this morning and had a narrow escape from being hurt. Mrs. Charron was cut and scratched about the face and head, but not seriously injured while Miss Martel escaped without a scratch.

The two ladies were in a carriage coming down Thirteenth street about eleven o'clock this morning when the horse attached to the carriage they were in took fright at the sight of a hurdy gurdy and made a dash down the hill. Near the corner of Bridge street the carriage was overturned and the occupants thrown out.

The ambulance was summoned, but before it arrived on the scene Dr. Boyden H. Pillsbury passed in his automobile and took the women to Miss Martel's home in June street. He also dressed Mrs. Charron's wounds.

The horse continued on its mad run through Hampshire street, but was captured before it did any damage.

Non-Support Case the Principal Item

The police court session this morning was very short, the only offenders being a man who had neglected his wife, a vagrant and a few drunks.

It was Michael Leary who was charged with failing to provide proper support for his wife, but the defendant said his wife was as much to blame as he. She said her husband had not worked since Christmas up to about a fortnight ago, and during that time she worked hard every day in a boarding house and provided for him. Mrs. Leary testified that her husband went off on a drunk a few days ago and spent the money he had earned. Leary acknowledged that he had been on a spree but said his better half accompanied him.

Judge Hadley gave Leary a little good advice and placed him in the hands of the probation officer for one week, and in the meantime he is supposed to secure work.

Peter Sheridan, who was very poorly clad, was charged with being a vagrant. He pleaded guilty and informed the court he had neither home nor work. He said he came from Worcester recently and had spent time at the state farm in Bridgewater. He was sentenced to the state farm.

Two first offenders were fined $2 each.

Saturday, July 4th, being a holiday, money should be deposited in the Five Cent Savings Bank on or before July 3rd in order to draw interest from this quarter day.

GEORGE B. HURD

WANTS TO BE ADMINISTRATOR OF NIECE'S ESTATE.

BOSTON, June 26.—George B. Hurd of New York, uncle of four-year-old Nathalie Hurd, who was left one-third of the estate of the late Walter P. Baker, amounting to about $250,000, under the will of the latter, which is now being contested by Edward P. Baker of this city, has petitioned the Suffolk probate court for appointment as administrator of the estate of his niece, who died soon after her benefactor, Frank H. Hurd, a brother of the petitioner, and his wife, Helen, died.

The petition as heirs at law and next of kin.

Walter P. Baker died at Bogota, N. J., last fall under circumstances which led to the belief that poisoning had been used. An inquest and autopsy, however, failed to develop any signs of poisoning. Under his will Harvard university, Edward P. Baker, his brother, and Nathalie Hurd, shared equally his estate. The brother contested the will on the ground that Walter P. Baker was mentally incapable and that undue influence had been exerted upon him.

DARING ROBBERY

Yeggmen Held Up a Train in Tyngsboro

One of the most daring train robberies ever perpetrated in the vicinity of Lowell took place this morning between three and four o'clock when a party of robbers, evidently Yeggmen, disabled a southbound freight train in Tyngsboro, and while the train hands were busily engaged in making the necessary repairs the robbers broke into sixteen of the cars and managed to secure a quantity of cigars, liquor, shoes and other miscellaneous articles.

That the work must have been done by a well organized gang of robbers was evident from the daring manner they took to bring the train to a stop in one of the most secluded spots between Concord and Boston. Then again the work of breaking into and pilfering the contents of the cars was done with a number of trainmen within a very short distance of the cars which were broken into, demonstrates the daring methods adopted.

Whether or not the men had a wagon in waiting and carried off the goods in that manner, or whether they carried away part in their arms and hid the rest of the booty, is not known. The work must have been carefully planned beforehand and has every appearance of having been done by men skilled in such business. The police in Massachusetts and New Hampshire have been notified of the break.

The train in question is one of the regular freights which is made up in Concord, N. H., and goes through to Boston, it being one of the biggest freights between the northern and southern points of this division of the railroad.

When the train reached a point near the camp of the Martin Luther in Tyngsboro it came to a sudden stop. The engineer closed the throttle and applied the brakes and the engineer, fireman and train hands with lanterns alighted and started looking for the trouble.

NOT WEALTHY BALLOON RACE YALE'S CAPTAIN

Five Airships to Contest for Glidden Trophy

Grover Fels Mentioned for the Place

NEW YORK, June 25.—Grover Cleveland, contrary to general belief, died a poor man, relatively speaking.

The opinion was generally held that he possessed a considerable estate and that his family would be well provided for. Inquiry has developed the fact, however, that he has left his widow and four children practically nothing except the house at Princeton and the places at Buzzards Bay and Tanaworth, N. H.

When Mr. Cleveland left the White House after his second term, it is said, he and his wife had an income between them of $100,000 a year. When he saw his children growing up and realized he was getting to be an old man his income often worried him because of the future of the young wife and children. He would accept nothing from friends, they say, though they were ready and willing to aid him in any way. He was extremely proud on this score, but he could not conceal the fact that he was not at ease.

It is said now he did not live in New York for the sole reason that it was cheaper to live in Princeton, and in Princeton he could maintain the style he felt would be demanded of him.

His income was added to by $5000 a year when he became one of the trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. Then when he was made head of the association of life insurance presidents at a salary of $25,000, his friends who knew of his financial limitations rejoiced. However, he had held that place only a year.

Mr. Cleveland had some money on deposit in the Knickerbocker Trust company, a fact which came out at the time the company closed its doors. An intimate friend who is familiar with Mr. Cleveland's financial affairs said yesterday that he may have had some money in addition to this deposit, but it was a trifling amount.

Mr. Cleveland was a great believer in life insurance, but for the past 15 years he had been in bad health. If he held any insurance that will go to his wife and children. It is believed to have been taken out before he entered the White House for his second term as president.

CRUISER SALEM

MADE AN AVERAGE SPEED OF 25.346 KNOTS.

BOSTON, June 25.—In her four hours' endurance run yesterday, the new scout cruiser Salem, built by the Fore River company, made an average speed of 25.346 knots. The Salem started from a point off Monhegan at 11 a. m., and dropped anchor in Nantasket Roads at 6 o'clock last night. During the second and third hours the average speed was 26.01, but at the beginning of the fourth hour one of the fire rooms became disabled; and the speed of the ship fell off to a trifle under 26 knots. The ship behaved well. The engines worked smoothly and no vibration was noticeable.

The cruiser easily surpassed the government requirement of 24 knots with 345 revolutions of the screw per minute, attaining a speed of 25.346 knots and it was found to secure 24 knots an hour "that" but 335.2 revolutions were necessary.

The cruiser took on coal and water last night and will sail at 8.30 in the morning on her 24-hour 12-knot endurance run. The following day she will be speeded at 22 knots an hour for 24 hours.

NORTH ADAMS, June 25.—Before Charles J. Glidden, the world tourist, had started in his balloon Boston from this city yesterday morning, it was announced that there would be a five-balloon race from this city August 14.

A. Holland Forbes of New York who was Mr. Glidden's companion and critic in yesterday's flight, set the date for the race because he is the giver of the cup. Two months ago he presented the cup to the North Adams aero club for the race, he being a member of the club.

The conditions are that each contestant shall pick out on the morning of the race the town post office to which he thinks he can sail nearest; the contestant making the best sail to his place of destination to be declared the winner of the cup. The post office picked out must be at least 49 miles away, and the balloon to win must be at least within 10 miles of the post office chosen.

Mr. Glidden entered the Boston this morning for the race. Mr. Forbes has entered his Conqueror, the largest balloon in America, the Sky Pilot will be entered by Messrs. Morgan and Wade of Cleveland, and North Adams, No. 1 and the Cheylock of this city will be in the race.

This will be the biggest balloon event in the United States with the exception of the St. Louis races.

LANDED IN WILBRAHAM.

WILBRAHAM, June 25.—The second voyage of the balloon "Boston" and the 10th of Charles J. Glidden, that will qualify him as pilot No. 12 of the Aero club of America and No. 1 of the Aero club of New England, was successfully made yesterday from North Adams at 9.20 a. m., on an easy landing being made on the farm of Charles Mowry at Wilbraham Centre, two miles from North Wilbraham station. Mr. Glidden was accompanied by A. Holland Forbes of New York, who was making his 15th ascension.

At the start the balloon carried 500 pounds of ballast. After hovering over the city a few minutes at an elevation of 1500 feet, the Hobbac mountain was crossed at the westerly door of the tunnel, where the cool air sent the balloon down at the expense of considerable sand. At an elevation of 4000 feet, variable winds caused the balloon basket to rock but unlike a small boat in a swell, a new experience to both aeronauts.

The voyage could well be called "an aerial sail among the collages," for at one time Wilbraham academy, Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Amherst and the Massachusetts agricultural college were visible. The highest elevation reached was 7400 feet. At 11.11 o'clock the top house of Mt. Holyoke was directly under the basket 6500 feet below. To the right was Mt. Tom, the city of Springfield covering about as much space as Boston common.

Mrs. Holyoke and Tom appeared like huge "A" tents with a heavy green covering. The sun and clouds caused much up and down movements and ascensions three hours before dark are the most desirable. A cool breeze off Mt. Holyoke caused a drop of 2800 feet and made a landing necessary on account of loss of sand in a 30-mile wind.

SHOT HERSELF

WOMAN HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH.

HEBRON, N. H., June 25.—Miss Hattie Kimball, aged 48 years, committed suicide last night by shooting herself through the head with a rifle. She had been in poor health for some time and was believed to have become despondent. With a sister, Miss Ellen Kimball, she had begun the erection of a boarding house to accommodate the summer visitors.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 25.—The next captain of the Yale baseball team will undoubtedly be Grover Cleveland Fels of Lowell, Mass.

Fels is a member of the junior class in the Sheffield Scientific school; and is shortstop on the varsity team.

Last year he played shortstop on the freshman team, and before that played the same position at Andover.

He is a member of the Sheffield society, "Book and Snake," and plays right wing on the Yale hockey team.

There is no academic man who will be a senior next year who is eligible for captain except Van Vleet, and there is feeling against electing a pitcher.

Wheaton, who was considered a possibility for a time, is out of the race, and will vote for Fels.

The election will be held in New York following next Saturday's game with Harvard.

ROMANCE OF LOVE BIG IMPROVEMENT BAPTIST PICNIC

Revealed by Death of a Millionaire

In Business Expected by Morgan

Grand Outing at Canobie Lake

PARIS, June 25.—The death here of Benjamin Hart, a millionaire American who has resided in Paris almost continuously for the past twenty-five years, has provoked a romance which promises to make a story equal in a suit brought by the adopted daughter, when Mr. Hart disinherited in his will.

Hart was a Virginian by birth, but he was well known in New York, where he lived for many years and where he amassed a large fortune during the Civil war. He was married while he lived in America, but later was divorced. As there were no children to the union, Mr. Hart, during one of his visits to Paris, became interested in a pretty three-year-old child, Isabel Lucchesi, and arranged with the parents to adopt her as his own daughter.

The little girl was tenderly reared by Hart until the divorce from his wife and every care was bestowed upon her education and training. In 1882, when Isabel was 17 years of age, Hart formally adopted her in New York. The adopted daughter about this time contracted a brilliant marriage with a distinguished young French diplomat, Jean Guillemin, who is well known in America, when he was dispatched by M. Delcasse upon two missions.

Soon after this Hart formed a mesalliance with a Madame de Blo, and installed her as the mistress of his splendid Paris home. It is charged that Madame de Blo conceived a violent hatred for the daughter because the latter refused to recognize her.

At any rate, when Mr. Hart died it was found that he had left a will specifically disinheriting the adopted daughter and bequeathing all his property, which amounts to several millions of dollars, to Madame de Blo. Guillemin has instructed the lawyer, Donald Harper, to bring suit to have the will on the ground of undue influence. The document will also be contested, as it was drafted in accordance with the New York law, whereas it is claimed Hart was domiciled in France. Mr. Hart's will came up for probate before the surrogate of New York on July 30.

LAWN PARTY

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

A very successful lawn party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Martha White, 125 Middlesex St., the affair being under the auspices of Ebenezer Lodge of Good Templars.

The grounds were prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and the evening was spent in music, singing and games. That the affair was financially successful, as well as enjoyable, is shown by the fact that nearly $85 was realized for the benefit fund. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ida Tilton, Mrs. Annie Corbett, Mrs. E. A. Christian, Miss Nye, White, Will Smith and George Tilton, Jr.

114 --- Merrimack Street --- 116

NEW YORK, June 25.—Dr. J. Pierpont Morgan carried his new honors lightly when he boarded the steamship Provence, of the French line, and sailed yesterday for Havre. The famous financier was in a singularly splendid mood for him, and took a sunny smile on the reports that almost struck them dumb with amazement.

"When you came in on the Mauretania last week Dr. Morgan," ventured one reporter, "you promised to give us some sort of an interview."

"Ah! ah!" laughed the banker, "so you call me Dr. Morgan now. That sounds funny, doesn't it? But I am a doctor of laws, a scintilla, so not a real doctor. I suppose, since they made me a lawyer, it won't be long before they put me in the Academy class. That seems to be the place where all lawyers get to."

Asked if he had any statement to make regarding the death of ex-President Cleveland, the banker turned very serious and said:

"Not. Don't ask me to speak off-hand on such a subject as that. Mr. Cleveland's death was a great shock to me, as it was to the nation. Please do not ask me to speak about it."

"Have you anything to say on the financial and business outlook?" was asked.

"I expect a very decided improvement. You may say that I am very optimistic," Mr. Morgan said that he expected to return in August. He will spend July in London, and expects to get a good rest.

The Baptists and Free Baptist churches of this city held their annual picnic at Canobie Lake park, yesterday. There was a large attendance and the day was all that could be desired. The picnicers were carried to the scene of the outing on special cars and there wasn't a dull moment during the day. The following churches were represented:

First Baptist, Branch Street Baptist, Fifth Street Baptist, Paige Street Free Baptist, Chelmsford Street Free Baptist, Mt. Vernon Free Baptist and the Hadley Street Free Baptist.

A greater portion of the day was taken up by an athletic meet for the Sunday school championship and the contest was an interesting one. Each church had its representatives and points were scored as follows:

First Baptist church, 35 points; Fifth street, 11; Worthen street, 10; Mt. Vernon, 9; Branch street, 7; and Chelmsford street, 1.

The events were won as follows: 100-yard dash for boys: First Coupe, First Baptist; second, Stiles, Fifth St.; third, Crossland, First Baptist.

100-yard dash for girls: First, Myrtle Taylor, First Baptist; second, Mildred Isherwood, Fifth Street; third, Flora Clark, First Baptist.

Three-legged race: First Parkinson and Semple, First Baptist; second, Cory and Legatt, Worthen Street; third, Field and Goldthwaite, Worthen street.

Men's relay race: First, Worthen street; second, Branch street; third, First Baptist.

Baseball throwing: First, Miss Eastman, Mt. Vernon; second, Flora Clark, First Baptist.

Women's relay race: First, First Baptist; second, Branch street; third, Fifth street.

Potato race for boys: First, Stiles, Fifth street; second, Harrison, Branch street; third, Mixer, Chelmsford street.

Peanut race for girls: First, Myrtle Taylor, First Baptist; second, Alice Cowdrey, Mt. Vernon; third, Ruth Foss, Branch street.

There was a corking baseball game between the crack team of the First Baptist church and a picked team from all the Sunday schools. Al. Haynes of Vermont university pitched for the First Baptist. The score was 15 to 12 in favor of the First Baptist.

The officials of the sports were: Referee, Rev. Geo. E. Tomkinson; judges, Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, Rev. F. McDonald, Rev. A. E. Kenyon; inspectors, Rev. A. P. Wedge, Rev. A. R. Toothaker, Rev. F. McLennan; scorer, Rev. Asa Reed Dills; starter, O. E. McGregor; measurers, Robert Stevenson, H. L. Woodman; custodian of prizes, Joseph Jasper; announcer, Eugene G. Russell.

CHILDREN ABUSED.

Mr. Editor: As a resident of Wigginsville, I wish to say a word in regard to the mother of a small family in this neighborhood. The little children are fastened up in a room in the house for hours nearly every day and let cry until the neighbors around are all unnerved. That mother's heart must be made of stone. People have threatened to complain of her and if she doesn't take a hint from this we will go farther. The children hardly ever see the outside of the door. The idea of shutting little children up this summer weather is outrageous. We want it published.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Noyes in Tyngsboro was the scene, last evening, of one of the prettiest of June weddings. The contracting parties were Miss Adelaide F. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Edwin F. Pike, of Pike's Hill, and C. E. Fisher of the First Universalist church, this city, performed the ceremony, the Episcopal two ring service being used. The maid of honor was Miss Edith B. Pike, sister of the bride, and the

CAPT. McNULTY AND PATROLMAN'S HANDS HIS MEN WERE BURNED

Lieuts. O'Donnell and The Boy Was Placed McArdle Quite Busy Under Arrest

BOSTON, June 26.—Lieut. Daniel F. Egan of the City Point police station had a narrow escape from being shot through the head and Patrolman Fred Seavey of the Dorchester station was

The following letter is from one of the members of Company M, now in camp at Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, Boston harbor.

Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, June 25th.

The second battalion of the 5th regiment stationed at Fort Andrews, is pleasantly situated on a sandy plain close to the shore and while the beach itself isn't of a sandy nature this doesn't prevent the boys from bathing every day in the bay.

The camp is a thoroughly up-to-date one, in every respect, having shower baths. The company streets are well lighted by electricity, and the best of sanitary arrangements prevail. Dr. P. E. Butler who is on duty with the battalion is very attentive to his work, keeping a careful watch on the company cooks and the cleanliness of their kitchens and ice chests. Captain Philip McNulty was officer of the day, on Tuesday, Lieut. Bernard F. McArdle was commander of the guard on Thursday, while Lieut. Thomas J. O'Donnell has been detailed to act as quartermaster. Lieut. O'Donnell had rather a strenuous time of it the first three days, getting the camp into shape as there was much poling to be done and looking up of baggage that had gone astray, as well as sending luggage to the other battalions stationed at different posts.

Captain Nesbit and Lieutenant Frank- enburgher, instructors at West Point are the officers detailed to act in the same capacity at this post, and as they spend all their time with the boys there will be a great improvement by the end of the week.

Schools are held daily for both officers and men and matters that are talked over at these sessions are put into practice the next day. It is expected that an armed party will attempt to make a landing sometime during the week, consequently the troops are carefully looking over the island in order that they may be familiar with the territory and at what points to dig their trenches so they may command a full view of the coast.

While all are impressed with the seriousness of camp life still they don't forget to participate in the social side, of which there is a great deal of in the Company M. Meet.

Sergeant E. Worthen is the commander of the scouting parties and he has been very successful in the performance of his duty. Monday night he gallantly led his scouts, who were heavily armed with lighted candles, along the shore seeking for spies and one of the rookies snatched a full view of the coast.

He was trying to conceal himself in the sand. He was immediately tried and sentenced to be shot. The shooting was postponed until the last night in camp.

It is rumored about the camp that the sergeant will charge up the hill tonight at eleven o'clock and attempt to remove the military crest. Whether he will be successful in this daring and almost hopeless attack is the subject of a great deal of questioning among the rookies.

The boys are in good health and are enjoying life, having the privilege of going to Nantasket after work is over, providing they have conducted themselves properly during the day. Visitors are few and far between as yet, but it is expected there will be many during the latter part of the week.

Anyone desiring to visit the camp may do so. Peddocks Island is reached by the Nantasket boat which stops at Pemberton and a ferry from the island will take the visitors to the camp field from Pemberton. Lowell papers are very scarce and the boys, I know, would greatly appreciate reading The Sun.

SECRETARY TAFT

DID NOT LEAVE NEW HAVEN WITH HIS WIFE.

NEW HAVEN, June 26.—Secretary Taft after four days of work and festivities at the commencement exercises at Yale today concludes his sojourn at New Haven. Mrs. Taft and Master Charles left here at 2:55 a. m. for New York.

At the last moment Secretary Taft who had planned to go with them decided not to go to New York until some time this afternoon. Mrs. Taft and her son will go directly to Washington where she will begin preparations for making up their home in the national capital. The family will spend practically the entire summer at Hot Springs, Va., only one or two short trips from there to other points being in contemplation.

In explanation of his sudden change of plans Secretary Taft said that some conferences which he was to have had today in New York had to be abandoned on account of the funeral this afternoon of the late President Cleveland.

"I have a considerable amount of correspondence which has been neglected for three or four days," said he, "and I am going to get it out of the way today. Here I can attend to it quietly whereas if I went to New York this morning I probably would be unable to do anything with it this afternoon."

CANAL WALL BUILDING.

The wall of the canal at the corner of Hanover and Merrimack streets is to be brought out as far as to fall in with the canal if not speedily repaired. They will probably be a Sunday job for the Locks and Canals men.

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

YOUNG TEDDY AND THE TRUSTS

IT SEEMS RATHER STRANGE THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WHO IS SO MUCH OPPOSED TO THE MAMMOTH TRUSTS, SHOULD SEND HIS SON TO LEARN THE STEEL BUSINESS WITH THE GREATEST AND PROBABLY THE WORST TRUST IN THE COUNTRY. IT MIGHT BE SUPPOSED THAT HE WOULD BE AFRAID THAT THE TRUST WOULD WEAN THE BOY AWAY FROM HIS FATHER'S PRINCIPLES OR THAT ON THE OTHER HAND THE TRUST MIGHT REGARD HIM AS DANGEROUS. IF YOUNG TEDDY SHOWS MUCH OF THE GRIT AND THE AGGRESSIVENESS OF HIS FATHER, IT WILL NOT TAKE HIM LONG TO MASTER THE STEEL BUSINESS AND EVENTUALLY TO RISE TO A PROMINENT POSITION IN THE TRUST. NO DOUBT THE FACT THAT HE IS THE SON OF THE PRESIDENT WILL GIVE HIM GREAT ADVANTAGES OVER OTHER BOYS IN RISING FROM THE BOTTOM OF THE LADDER TO THE TOP. BUT HAVING ONCE REACHED THE TOPMOST ROUNO WILL YOUNG ROOSEVELT REFORM THE TRUST OR WILL HE EMULATE THE CROESUS LIKE WEALTH OF CARNEGIE AND CARNEGIE'S METHODS OF SPENDING MONEY WRUNG FROM THE PEOPLE BY TRUST EXTORTIONS?

SHELTERS IN PUBLIC PARKS

OUR PUBLIC PARKS ARE VERY DEFICIENT IN SHELTERS UNDER WHICH THE PEOPLE MIGHT TAKE REFUGE DURING A SHOWER OR ON A VERY HOT DAY.

THE PARK DEPARTMENT HAS PROVIDED SOME APPARATUS ON THE COMMON FOR THE USE OF CHILDREN, AMONG THESE BEING SAND BOXES AND METALLIC SLIDES.

IT MUST BE OBVIOUS TO EVERYBODY THAT LITTLE CHILDREN CANNOT SAFELY BE ALLOWED TO PLAY IN THESE SAND BOXES UNDER THE GLARE OF THE SUN ON A HOT DAY SUCH EXPOSURE TO THE SUN WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY BE TOO MUCH FOR THEM TO ENDURE WITHOUT INJURY; AND FOR THIS REASON THE SAND BOXES UNLESS ROOFED OVER ARE NOT WITHOUT DANGER TO SMALL CHILDREN. AS TO THE METALLIC SLIDES THEY BECOME SO HEATED UNDER CONTINUOUS EXPOSURE TO THE SUN ON A HOT DAY, THAT CHILDREN HAVE BEEN BURNED BY ATTEMPTING TO SLIDE ON THEM DURING THE HEAT OF THE DAY. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT THE PARK DEPARTMENT WILL PROVIDE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE PROPER SHELTERS FOR THE PEOPLE AND SUITABLE PROTECTION FOR THE SLIDES, THE SAND BOXES AND THE OTHER APPARATUS SO THAT ALL MAY BE ENJOYED EVEN IN HOT WEATHER WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS DANGER.

ENCOURAGING BUSINESS OUTLOOK

IT WOULD SEEM TO BE AN UTTER IMPOSSIBILITY TO MAINTAIN A BUSINESS DEPRESSION EVEN FOR THE NEXT SIX MONTHS, IN VIEW OF THE GRAND PROSPECTS OF ABUNDANT HARVESTS, THE GREAT HAY AND GRAIN CROPS AND THE APPARENT REVIVAL IN RAILROADING AND MANUFACTURING.

THE CENSUS OF FREIGHT CARS NOW IN USE IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA SHOWS A REDUCTION OF ABOUT THIRTY THOUSAND IN THE NUMBER OF IDLE CARS SINCE LAST MONTH. THIS INDICATES A GREAT INCREASE IN TRANSPORTATION WHICH MUST BE DUE OF COURSE TO A CORRESPONDING INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTS OF INDUSTRY.

THE MOST FAVORABLE REPORTS SEEM TO COME FROM THE EASTERN, MIDDLE AND NORTH ATLANTIC STATES WHERE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES ARE NUMEROUS. SOME MAY NOT SHOW COMPLETE RECOVERY FOR A COUPLE OF MONTHS, JULY AND AUGUST ARE USUALLY DULL MONTHS ANYHOW, AND THIS YEAR MAY BE NO EXCEPTION. BUT FROM THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER A STEADY IMPROVEMENT IS LOOKED FOR AN IMPROVEMENT TOO THAT WILL SOON REACH THE NORMAL CONDITIONS OF PROSPERITY THAT PREVAILED TWO YEARS AGO.

HIGHER TAX RATE

THE CITY OF BOSTON IS ALARMED AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE TAX RATE FOR THIS YEAR WILL REACH THE UNPRECEDENTED FIGURE OF $1.00 PER $100. THE CITY OF LOWELL WOULD DECLARE ONE OF THE GRANDEST CELEBRATIONS IN ITS HISTORY IF IT WERE ASSURED OF A REDUCTION IN THE TAX RATE TO $1.

SUED FOR DIVORCE

THERE SURELY MUST BE SOMETHING WRONG HERE.

NEWARK, N. J., June 25.—Vice-Chancellor Emery, of Newark, is trying to unravel a strange story that was told in his courtroom at the trial of a divorce suit. The action was brought by John H. Crane, of Dover, against Minnie E. Crane. He asks for a divorce on the ground of desertion, but the defendant is contesting on the ground that she is not and never was his wife. The couple have an eleven-year-old son.

John Crane asserts that one May day in 1894 he took the defendant out for a carriage ride from her home near New Brunswick, N. J., and drove to the latter place, where they were married by the Rev. W. E. Telling. He exhibited a marriage certificate solemnly signed by the minister named. Old residents of the town declare that there was never a minister of that name in the place.

The defendant, who says her name is Minnie E. Smith, denies the story told by the petitioner. She admits taking the carriage ride, but asserts it was on Thanksgiving day in 1896 and not in the May following. She declares that he was seventeen and she sixteen at the time. While on the ride they stopped at the home of a minister to get married, but he was not at home. They then drove to a neighboring town, only to find that minister also absent. Then they returned and declared they had been married, having agreed to have the ceremony performed later.

But, according to the woman, the ceremony has never been performed. When she wanted to get married, she says, Crane was not ready, and when he finally made up his mind to take her as his legal wife she concluded not to have him. Through her counsel, she presented the records of the bureau of vital statistics at Trenton, showing that there is no record in the state of the alleged marriage.

It was intimated by Crane's counsel when he found that there was no record of the marriage and that the certificate was probably bogus that at least a common law marriage existed, but the court held that the petitioner had alleged a ceremonial marriage and had produced a certificate, and the question of a common law marriage could not be injected into the case at this time.

BELLS TO TOLL

MAYOR McCLELLAN MAKES REQUEST TO PASTORS.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Mayor McClellan, in an announcement yesterday, requested the ministers of all churches in New York City to have the bells in their churches toll from 5 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon during the funeral services at Princeton. The board of governors of the Consolidated stock exchange decided at one o'clock as a token of respect for Mr. Cleveland. With the simultaneous closing of the New York stock exchange and the consolidated exchange business in the financial district will be practically at a standstill. The banks, however, will remain open as usual.

CONTINUES TO ADD TO ITS MEMBERSHIP.

The regular weekly meeting of the Catholic Young Men's Lyceum was held last night. President Andrew Smith, presided and the report of the last meeting was read by the secretary and accepted.

The membership of both the lyceum and the gymnasium continues to grow. There were four propositions for membership received and three candidates were admitted.

The committee on athletics reported that the Lyceum would be represented at Washington park on July 14, by a competent squad of athletes. The Lyceum will have as its delegate for the benefit to be held on July 14, President Smith.

The Country club composed of members of the Lyceum has now a membership of over 200, at its recreation grounds.

The return debate to be held with the Y. M. C. A. of Lawrence will take place in the near future.

The election of the officers for the ensuing six months will be held on Thursday evening, July 2. The election will be followed by a smoke talk, the entertainment committee will present a musical program.

There are about twenty-five candidates for the chair and some lively battles will ensue.

A new committee was appointed by the president last evening to procure material for the establishing of a large debating society. The Lyceum has some fluent talkers and they have taken kindly to the formation of a permanent debating club.

The gymnasium committee has secured the services of Frank Davey, the local wrestler, for the coming winter. Mr. Davey, will form classes of members who desire to learn the game.

The track team is putting in daily practice on the boulevard. A cross country run will be participated in by the members in a short time.

AT PORTSMOUTH

The Merrimack Valley
Boards of TradeWILL HOLD THEIR
OUTINGOfficials Not With Local
Board Yesterday

The presidents and secretaries of the Merrimack Valley boards of trade met at the rooms of the local board yesterday afternoon. Dr. M. P. Sullivan, president of the Lawrence board, called to order at 3 p. m. The boards of trade of the cities of the valley were represented by Pres. Dr. M. P. Sullivan and Secretary Chas. H. Littlefield of Lawrence; President J. N. Bachelder and Secretary A. M. Child of Haverhill; President Harry A. Smith and Secretary J. H. Dunlap of Manchester, while the New Hampshire state board was represented by Mr. M. T. Metcalf of Concord. Dr. Sullivan was elected chairman of the meeting and Mr. McKenna was chosen secretary.

The question of an outing was the first matter of discussion, and while all favored the proposition the Massachusetts men did not care to assume the responsibility. Finally Mr. Dunlap kindly invited the Massachusetts cities to join with the New Hampshire state board of trade in their outing in Portsmouth, early in September, when the battleship New Hampshire will be visited. The invitation was gladly accepted.

President Smith of the local board introduced the project of making the Merrimack river navigable and told what had been done in recent years in that direction. There was much interest shown, especially from Haverhill. The Haverhill board has made a request to the national government for a committee to ascertain whether a dam built at Amesbury, which would probably give to Haverhill 14 additional feet of water, would be feasible. Since then the New England corps of geodetic surveyors has been at work on the practicability of the scheme and will report at Washington in the fall on their results.

The last matter of discussion was relative to the sewage of the Merrimack Valley, Lawrence and Haverhill desire to use the water on account of the dearth of water and hence would divert the sewage from the Merrimack. No definite action was taken and all agreed that the matter will have to be settled by a commission appointed jointly from both states. The meeting adjourned at 4:30.

HARVARD'S RACE

Yale Defeated in the Great Varsity Race

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 26.—Harvard, rah, rah, rah, rah, rah. With a deafening din of steam whistles and horns and the frenzied shouts of collegians, the Harvard varsity eight shot their boat over the finish line last night, winning from the crippled and distanced Yale crew that classic of American collegiate aquatics, the Harvard-Yale varsity boat race. But instead of a race Harvard finished the last mile and a half alone, while far behind Yale limped along with but seven men at the oars, with Griswold, the stroke—the man who had been relied upon to set the winning pace—bent forward, limp, and collapsed with the terrific strain of the opening two miles. Up to this unexpected climax, it had been a stirring struggle, worthy of the best traditions of the old antagonists and with a fitting setting of a magnificent marine spectacle. For the first time, too, the president of the United States was taking keen and active interest as a champion of the Crimson colors and although compelled by circumstances to absent himself yesterday, the spirit of enthusiasm was voiced by the Roosevelt family who witnessed the contest from the deck of the presidential yacht. Old Eli had her distinguished champion, Secretary Taft, the central figure of a group of collegians aboard one of the observation trains, who shouted encouragement to the Yale crew as they sped over the early reaches of the course and then lapsed into glum dismay as Griswold was seen to fall over helpless in the Yale boat.

The race was rowed under the most favorable race conditions, just as the sun was setting over the picturesque Thames with the water broken only by ripples. The great steel drawbridge spanning the Thames marked the start of the race, with the finish at Red Top, four miles up stream. Just above the bridge were massed the main flotilla of pleasure craft. The Sylph, with the Roosevelt aboard had a point of vantage near the finish.

Through the maze of craft, the racers threaded their way, with a clear course, 200 feet wide, marked every half mile with red and blue standards.

Yale had splashed at the start and Harvard had been able to push their boat slightly ahead. They hung nip and tuck, Harvard's stamina against Yale's speed, through the roaring avenues of nerve-racking, scorching thousands. Half a mile from the start both crews were almost side by side, with Harvard a few feet to the fore; one mile, Harvard still ahead with Yale holding on doggedly; two miles, Yale spurring and lessening the gap; two and a half miles, Harvard still in the lead, with open water between the boats and Yale fighting on like grim death.

Now came the decisive moment, with the final stretch almost in sight and the breathless throngs straining to see if Harvard would keep up the clip or would weaken at the close. Steadily on they came, when suddenly a commotion was observed in the Yale boat, as Griswold, the stroke, hung forward over his oar and ceased to row.

For nearly a minute it seemed that the Yale stroke sat motionless, leaning forward as if lifeless. Then he was seen to straighten up and bend to his oar again, and a great shout went up from the Yale cohorts, as their crew was seen to pick up the stroke, and rally for another effort. But they were now six boat lengths behind, hopelessly beaten. Another twenty strokes and then the whole crew, disheartened at the fall of their leader, quit their work and sat dejected in their oars. Yale was out; it was no longer a race, and Harvard swung ahead alone still keeping up the racing clip and crossing the finishing line with a regular "swish swash" to the very end. As Harvard sped across the line, "boom, boom," and "toot, toot" went up in a deafening chorus from the myriad craft, while from bank to bank rolled a chorus of Harvard yells and from every truck and mainmast broke out the triumphant crimson and bewitching haze of kaleidoscopic color. Griswold had been helped from the Yale boat and lagging far behind the Harvard men the seven remaining oarsmen of the Yale crew at last made half appearance at the finish—a half mile behind Harvard, receiving a generous ovation for their pluck under such disheartening conditions. New came the welcome to the victors and the wild scene of tumultuous demonstration as the men of Harvard celebrated their triumph.

Earlier in the day honors were divided, the Yale four defeating the Harvard four by two lengths and the Harvard freshmen eight defeating the Yale freshmen by three lengths.

TRIED TO ESCAPE

Four Prisoners Failed in Dash for Freedom

PORTLAND, Me., June 26.—The attempt of Minot St. Clair Francis and three other Maine prisoners to escape from a train running at 60 miles an hour was told here yesterday by United States Marshal Charles Haskell, who, with three guards, returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they went with the prisoners.

The plan to escape was engineered by Francis, who had carried a wire 1½ inches long in his mouth, no one knows how long, with which the shackles which bound the prisoners hand and foot were loosened.

The prisoners, aside from Francis, were William Huddle, Paul Ritcher and William Phelps, all postoffice robbers.

The attempt to escape was made near Raleigh, N. C. At about 3 o'clock Saturday morning, while the guard's head was turned, Huddle made a dive for the passage leading to the Pullman car. The guard fired one shot and then gave chase. He caught Huddle just as he was lunging through a window in the smoking compartment.

While the guard was following Huddle, the other prisoners had been pinning the Phelps and Huddle were entirely free from their shackles, having picked the locks with the wire Francis had carried in his mouth. That Francis and Ritcher were not free was due to the fact that one of the locks had become jammed and refused to open.

Huddle is from Montreal, where he served prison terms and has an unfinished term in the Maine state prison. Ritcher was arrested for postoffice burglary in Maine. Phelps was closely affiliated with Francis in some of his most daring deeds. He was sentenced to six years in the Maine state prison on Feb. 10, 1905, at the same time that Francis was sentenced for 16 years for breaking open the Red Beach postoffice in Calais, Me., and shooting James Brown, night custodian of the mails. This was after he had escaped from Bridgewater and had terrorized New England.

BOSTON HELPLESS

TO SECURE GRAIN TRADE WITHOUT HELP OF RAILROADS.

The action of the White Star Line in withdrawing its five freight steamers from the New York service, owing to the decline of the trade of that port, and the efforts of the Boston chamber of commerce to secure a reduction in rates to this port call attention once more to the futility of any attempt which New York and Boston, and especially Boston, may make to compete with Montreal and Portland for the export grain traffic unless the railroads serving the two former ports come to their assistance.

As Secretary Morris of the chamber of commerce points out in his communication to the N. Y. Central officials, the present all-water rate from Port William delivered f. o. b. steamer at Montreal, including extra insurance, is 4.25 cents per bushel, as compared with 7.65 cents per bushel via Buffalo to Boston, while the lake and rail rate via Georgian Bay port to Montreal is 4.15 cents, as compared with 7.65 cents via Buffalo to Boston. The result of this disparity is that, since the opening of navigation, Montreal has booked over 8,000,000 bushels of grain for export, whereas Boston has booked only 1,000,000 bushels in all. Under the circumstances the shipping facilities at this port promise to be further curtailed unless a larger amount of grain is brought through by the railroads.

Already the boats in the Boston service of the Leyland and White Star lines number only four, whereas they usually number seven or more at this time of year.

In urging the New York Central to meet the competition of Montreal and Portland—for Portland has also been favored at the expense of Boston by the Grand Trunk, which makes a lake and rail rate via Georgian Bay port to Montreal of 5.40 cents—the Chamber of Commerce makes a request which is altogether reasonable. And yet, it is to be feared that the Central will view the matter in a different light. We sincerely hope that our fears shall prove to have been unfounded, but experience leads us to believe that the first attempt is unlikely to convince the Central that it is as much for its own interest as that of Boston to grant lower rates to this port. The longer the Vanderbilts retain an interest in the transportation facilities to this port the stronger the evidence becomes that they are only incidentally engaged in promoting the welfare of Boston, Montreal and Portland, on the other hand, are served by railroads which are determined to leave nothing undone to advance the interests of these communities, so that while we continue to have this unseemly apathy on the part of the Central, it is idle to look for a restoration of Boston's grain trade. The only grain that has come to this port in the past has been the overflow from the northern ports, and this is all we can expect in the future.

Howard Was the Only One to Meet Him Right and He Got a Homer—Visitors Pounded Rivard Out of the Box

Another large crowd went out to Washington park yesterday to witness the second game between Lowell and Jesse Burkett's Worcester Braves. Manager Sharrett gave the French battery a chance to show what they could do in double harness while the Worcester team had Owens on the slab and McCune on the receiving end.

President Winn announced that he was trying to get the Boston Americans to come to Lowell on July 6, the Bostonians having an open date on that day. He also announced that the game as Buffalo Bill's Wild West show will be in Lowell on the night of next month the game scheduled to be played in this city will be transferred.

Umpire Joseph O'Brien called the game at 2:15 o'clock.

Johnson singled and scored McCune but Russell struck out.

FIFTH INNING.

of the minor leagues. O'Hagan handed it out with mouth and fists until the welfare of the entire league demanded his retirement. Leonard is still unhappy and when we read in the Lynn paper that the New England league should call his office, we can't help thinking that Frank has been whispering to the boys. Once in the history past a baseball manager of the same name broke up the New England league and formed a rival New England association. Can it be that history is trying to repeat itself? Perish the thought even if we have a bum team in Lowell.

Repulsed the "Enemy"
After Hard Fight

PORT REVERE, June 23, 11 p. m.—After two hours of desperate fighting Companies E and I of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., have saved this post from the hands of the "enemy."

Shortly after dark there came a shot from a vigilant sentry on the eastern outpost. A few moments later the other outposts came running in and reported that the "enemy" was advancing in force from the direction of Stony Beach.

The call to arms rang out and the boys in brown had barely time to grasp their rifles before the "enemy" was charging up the hill. When the smoke of battle had cleared away, an account of damages revealed but one fatality. One private slipped into a gully during the excitement of the moment and left part of his brown canvas trousers behind him. Fortunately the moon was not very bright and he succeeded in rescuing the missing portion under heavy fire.

The "enemy" comprised Companies B and H of the Ninth, and they deserve great credit for their excellent work as such. All other things being equal and their numbers the same the odds are all in favor of the defenders, yet the attacking party came very near winning.

There was another assault earlier in the day, with Companies H and I attacking. It was a stirring scene and a great crowd gathered on the water tower hill to witness the exciting work laid out below in a grand panorama. First Lieutenant C. E. Leonard of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., went out with the "enemy" and Captain D. G. Barry, Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., was adviser for the defenders, who were declared the successful side.

WON REGULARS' COMMENDATION. Owing to a shortage of ammunition, it was impossible to get the best results, but the way the "enemy" advanced won the commendation of the regulars.

"They are doing fine work," said one of the instructors to the Post correspondent. "The way the 'enemy' crawled along taking advantage of every bit of protection, was excellent. And then did you notice how they charged in small squads a short distance and then dropped for cover while the rest were firing to protect their advance?"

During the afternoon the volunteer infantry were engaged in studying trenches and similar work. Tomorrow they will have one of the most interesting days of the tour of camp duty. A special problem has been devised by the corps of instructors, and the officers and men of the militia must work it out, as if it were a case of actual war.

Similar work has been performed by the other Ninth regiment companies at the various harbor forts today. Companies 7 and 11 of the coast artillery corps were given a fire command drill at Fort Revere. At Fort Banks and Heath and Fort Andrews similar work was done.

Companies 2 and 5 at Fort Strong, and Companies 1, 3 and 4, stationed at Fort Warren, had their anxiously anticipated service practice. The 12th shot from the 10-inch rifles of Battery Hitchcock at Fort Strong smashed the target nearly five miles away into bits. The last two had to be shot without a target.

AT BELLE GROVE

ENJOYABLE DANCE BY THE IDEAL CLUB.

Belle Grove was the scene last evening of a most successful and enjoyable social and dance under the auspices of the Ideal Social club. It was the second event of the kind in the history of the club and the club members have good sufficient cause to feel proud of the splendid success that attended their second social and dance.

and Lawrence and there were guests present from Boston, Nashua, Lawrence and Haverhill. There were 250 couples present and a general good time was enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Calumet orchestra and the dance order contained sixteen numbers. The affair was officiated as follows: Aaron Peterlosky, general manager; Miss Ethel Hacker, assistant general manager; Benjamin Hammer, floor director; Miss Hattie Learman, assistant floor director; Aaron L. Berenson was chief aid and he was assisted by Sophie Stein, Fannie Barlosky, Ida Faresky, Annie Paresky, David Salovitch, Joseph Simons, Julius Berenson and Maurice Pearlman.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Thomas H. Erwin and Miss Anna K. Parker were united in the holy bonds of marriage Wednesday at 6 o'clock at the parochial residence of St. Patrick's church by Rev. John J. McHugh.

The bride was prettily attired in white silk crepe de chine trimmed with Irish point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, tied with white ribbon. The bridemaid, Miss Nancy S. Parker, sister of the bride, wore a similar dress and carried carnations tied with pink ribbon. The best man was Mr. John Leahy, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, and later a delicious supper was served to a host of immediate friends. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and the grounds illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin were the recipients of a wealth of beautiful and costly presents including cut glass, silver, etc. They left on the 9:30 train amid a shower of confetti and with the best wishes of all their friends. After a short tour during which they will visit New York and the western states, they will reside at 34 Central street.

EXECUTRIX SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 2.30 P. M.

By virtue of a license granted to me by the probate court for the county of Middlesex, I shall offer for sale on the premises in two separate parcels:

At 2.30 P. M.

FIRST PARCEL, which is situated on the northerly side of Pleasant street, Dracut, Mass., near the Centre Meeting House, is the second property beyond the town hall. The lot has a large frontage on Pleasant street and has an area of twenty-five thousand seven hundred and eighty-three square feet (25,783). The lot is very level and is all fenced in; it is but a few minutes' walk from the electric cars and the fact of it being so near the town hall, churches and schools, it should certainly attract the attention of someone who would like a nice site for a country home as it is in the five cent fare to Lowell and on the fast line. You know with almost 26,000 square feet of land, you could build a nice little cottage and have quite a large garden.

At 3 P. M.

SECOND PARCEL is situated on the easterly side of Bridge street, Dracut, Mass., having a frontage of about 60 feet and an area of about 8000 square feet. This is a very nice site and is a perfectly level and dry lot. It is located about one minute's walk from the end of the electric car line on Bridge street, and is right in a location where there is an excellent lot of neighbors, most all of whom own their own homes.
Terms: $15 must be paid to the auctioneer as a deposit on the first parcel as soon as struck off. $50 must be paid on the second parcel as soon as struck off.

By order of ANNIE M. LEACH.
Executrix of the will of Abby Leach.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON, AT 3.30 P. M., ABSOLUTE SALE OF A TWO-TENEMENT HOUSE, STABLE AND ABOUT 9400 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 69-71 THIRD STREET, CENTRALVILLE.

On the premises I shall offer for sale to whomsoever will bid the most, this two tenement house, stable and about 9400 square feet of land. The house consists of two tenements with six rooms with each tenement, being in parl., parlor, dining room, kitchen, three chambers, pantry and bath; furnace heat with each tenement; separate front and back doors; gas, hot and cold water, and cemented cellar with set tubs in cellar. A coat of paint on the outside will put the house in good condition. The stable has two stalls, and plenty of carriage room. The total rental of the property is about $450 a year. The lot has a large frontage on Third street, has an area of about 9400 square feet, a very large garden all fenced in and sodded, with a number of peach, pear and apple trees. The location and neighborhood is all and this parcel is within 200 yards of Bridge street, which brings it close to schools, churches and about five minutes' walk to the square. Now then a two tenement house is considered the very best security that a man can have, especially so for a man of moderate means who could occupy one tenement and have the income of the other, and in this case the purchaser would have the income of one tenement and a stable, and have the benefit of a nice little vegetable garden, until such time as he is able to improve the balance of his land. Look this property up and call at the office of the auctioneer and talk it over, as I know that he can give indications that will interest the intending purchaser, and in this case will guarantee a good liberal mortgage at 5 per cent.
Terms—$50 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.
C. F. KEYES, in charge.

BIG CONVENTION

Federation of Labor to Meet Here

Details Driscoll, secretary of the state branch of the American Federation of Labor was in Lowell yesterday, accompanied by his brother. His mission was to make arrangements for the convention of the state branch to be held in this city sometime during the latter part of July or the early part of August.
It was Mr. Driscoll's first visit to Lowell since his rather sensational and painful experience at the state house where, while having an audience with the governor, he was shot by Steele, the lunatic, Mr. Cohen of Lynn, another well known labor man, was also in the governor's office when Steele started to shoot the place up, and Cohen received pistol wounds that proved fatal.
Mr. Driscoll is in the best of health and spirits and he says that the one day of all times that will be ever fresh in his memory is the day of the shooting in the governor's office.

ANNUAL OUTING

OF THE LOWELL BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS.

The Lowell Board of Underwriters held its annual outing at Canobie Lake park yesterday afternoon and evening. The members, jolly good fellows, left Lowell at 2.15 and upon the first crack out of the box when they arrived at the lake. Two teams, captained by Joseph Peabody and Frank Murphy, were organized. The first game was a tie and Murphy's team won the second game by three pins. After the bowling match the underwriters attended to the wants of the inner man and from the dinner table they adjourned again to the bowling alleys.

DIRK FOUND

NEAR THE SCENE OF ANNIE MULLINS MURDER.

BOSTON, June 26.—Interest has again awakened in the Annie Mullins tragedy by the finding of the blade of a dirk yesterday afternoon not far from the scene of the murder by Thomas F. Galvin of 111 Dudley street, North Cambridge.
The knife blade has been turned over to Inspector Daniel Hooley of the Arlington police.
It will be submitted for blood tests to Professor Whitney of Harvard.
The blade is about six inches long and is corroded heavily.

NIGHT EDITION

WITHOUT EULOGY

Ex-President Grover Cleveland to Be Buried This Afternoon

PRINCETON, N. J., June 26.—Without eulogy, sermon or song, but with the simple burial service of the Presbyterian church, Grover Cleveland will be buried late this afternoon in Princeton cemetery beside the Ivy-covered grave of his daughter Ruth. Although President Roosevelt will be in attendance as will Gov. Fort of New Jersey, Gov. Hughes of New York, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia and other distinguished personages they will not attend in an official capacity but as friends of the late ex-president.

The last honors to be paid the dead statesman will be strictly private both at "Westland," the Cleveland residence and at the cemetery in compliance with the wishes not only of Mrs. Cleveland but those of Mr. Cleveland as well.

The services at the house which will begin at five o'clock will last about half an hour. The clergymen who will alternate in the ceremonies there and at the grave are the Rev. Henry Van Dyke of Princeton university; the Rev. Dr. William R. Richards of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York; the Rev. Sylvester Beach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Princeton in which Mrs. Cleveland is a communicant, and the Rev. Maitland V. Bartlett, a former pastor of Mr. Cleveland and the present pastor of the Westfarms Presbyterian church of New York.

A change in the location of the casket during the funeral services was announced today. It was said instead of the body being placed in the library it will lie in the reception room which is at the front of the east side of the house and across the broad hall of the library. The casket will be brought down stairs shortly before the funeral begins and it is expected that personal friends will be permitted to view the features of the dead statesman in the room where he died on the second floor but that the casket will be closed before it is taken to the reception room.

Mrs. Cleveland and her two children, Esther and Richard, who came from Farmington, the Cleveland summer home last night, Miss Rose Cleveland, a sister of the former president; Miss Mary Hastings, a niece; Cleveland Bacon, a nephew and other immediate relatives will surround the bier in the library. Although 20 chairs were taken to Westland, not more than 200 were today placed about the house as it is expected only about 150 persons will attend the services. After the services which will consist only of the reading of scripture, the recital of the creed and prayer, the coffin will be borne from the reception room to the hearse for the journey to the cemetery. More than a score of carriages will be in the procession. The streets from "Westland" to the cemetery will be guarded by mounted troopers and members of the New Jersey state militia. Intersecting streets will be roped off and no pedestrians or vehicles will be allowed within the curb lines from the time the procession starts until after it has passed into the cemetery.

Many beautiful floral tributes are being received at "Westland" and messages and letters of sympathy are still coming in large numbers.

Twenty-six carriages will convey the funeral party to the cemetery. The pallbearers will walk with the hearse, six on either side.

The officiating clergyman will occupy the first carriage and the second will contain Mrs. Cleveland, her son Richard and Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, of New York, the family physician. The third will be occupied by Miss Rose Cleveland and Miss Esther Cleveland, Cleveland Bacon, Miss Mary L. Hastings and Prof. and Mrs. Wood will ride in the fourth and the fifth and sixth will convey Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston of Princeton, Mrs. John Finely of New York; Mrs. Richard Watson Gilder, George Shipley, Miss Annie Heckler and Charles Rogers of Brooklyn. Following the family friends will come President and Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb in the seventh carriage and this will be followed by another containing four secret service men.

The town began to take on a more animated appearance today when hundreds of persons from nearby towns began to arrive, eager to see the funeral procession and to catch a glimpse of President Roosevelt. Outside the Cleveland home which stands in one of the prettiest parts of Princeton there were no signs during the morning of what will take place this afternoon.

The house stands far from the most frequented streets and few persons were in the vicinity. At the entrance to the Cleveland grounds a policeman stood guard.

SPECIAL SESSION

Of Superior Court at Gorham St.

MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL

In Cases Out of Church
St. Accident

A special session of the superior court for the purpose of hearing motions was held at the local court house in Gorham street, this morning, Judge King presiding.

Messrs. John J. O'Connor, John J. Hogan and William H. Bent argued for a new trial in the cases of Janquira, Perron, Gargan and Cayer, against Joseph Jalbert. These cases grew out of the accident at the Shedd building in Church street this spring when two of the above mentioned men were killed.

When the case was heard before the superior court verdicts for the defense were rendered. Mr. O'Connor appeared for Janquira, Mr. Hogan for Perron and Gargan and Mr. Bent for Cayer. Judge King took the matter under advisement.

In the case of Prince against the Lowell Electric Light corporation, in which the jury returned a verdict of $3000 for the plaintiff, Lawyer F. V. Qua, representing the defense, argued to have the verdict set aside and have a new trial.

The committee, however, evidently think the verdict a bit prudish and they incline to the semi-slant. The committee members have agreed to be the proper paper and that is likely what the committee will recommend.

Supt. Whitcomb says that the proposed change will not be very expensive to the city because the Whitehouse people will take back all of the vertical system books that have not been used, allowing the city what was paid for them. The city, of course, would have to stand the expense of throwing away the books that are now in use, some 10,000 or more. In 1907 there were 9278 books in use in the day schools and 816 in the evening schools. But don't you care, Lowell is rich.

The argument is made that the vertical hand is a poor one to go out into business life with, because it is school-boyish and slow. Just how the committee arrived at the conclusion that the vertical hand would be because of its sluggishness and schoolhouse atmosphere has not been fully explained, but the fellows who are going to control the change have arrived at this conclusion. "The committee's slogan is: 'The public demands a slant.'"

Representatives of the vertical system assert that it is the fastest in the market and the foundation for their assertion is that the system has won first place in several speed tests.

Contractor Simpson is still probing for a bottom to the new fire house site in West Sixth street for which he is laying the foundation. There seems to be absolutely no bottom to the back side of the fire house lot. Iron bars three times the length of crowbars have been pushed into the earth and no bottom can be found. The contractor and others are at a loss to know what to make of it. Some of the men employed on the job think it's a bit uncanny.

Mr. Simpson has not yet made up his mind as to how he will overcome the difficulty, but he allows that he will be able to think a way out of it. There was a time when the Merrimack river's bank came within a few yards of the land on which is the fire house site, and the land from that point to the river is, so the old settlers say, made land.

It would be a very serious affair should the fire house be built on a drop, without notice, into a bottomless abyss, and there is no telling but what that might happen while the brave fire ladders were wrapped in the arms of Morpheus. Such an occurrence, of course, would make a peach of a story, but as much as we like good stories we would prefer the survival of the fire house and the firemen.

Then again such a calamity might bring about an international difficulty that would render it necessary for us to walloper a few million Chinamen. Of course this is a little far fetched, but if that fire house ever got to going it might not stop until it got to China, and a great big fire house attaining a velocity acquired by so great a fall would be liable to do some mischief providing it should land in a city proper or a public assemblage.

THE SEMI-SLANT

The System of Writing
Under Consideration

BY COMMITTEE OF SCHOOL BOARD

With Present System

Some members of the school board are in favor of a change in the writing system now in use in the schools. The verticle must give way to a semi-slant, they say, which is described by some as "the vertical tipped over." The enthusiasts call it the happy medium between the vertical and the Spencerian and others say it's a compromise. It is called the Whitehouse system and is alleged to have been christened that in order that it might carry with it a sort of Washingtonian or national prestige.

Supt. Whitcomb is perfectly satisfied with the present system, the vertical, and he is not offering any argument in favor of a change. The primary teachers are for the vertical to a unit and the grammar masters are about equally divided. The children like it because it is simple and easy to learn, and the parents and others like it because it is neat and legible.

The committee, however, evidently think the verticle a bit prudish and they incline to the semi-slant. The committee members have agreed to be the proper paper and that is likely what the committee will recommend.

Supt. CHAS. J. GLIDDEN

Wants An Aero Park in Lowell

WRITES TO BOARD OF TRADE

To Excite Interest in the Matter

Charles J. Glidden, who just at present is interested in balloons and balloon trips, thinks that Lowell should have an aero park and he has asked the board of trade to aid in furthering the project. John A. McKenna, secretary of the board of trade today tried to locate Pres. Motley of the Lowell Gas Co., to get him interested in the matter, but Mr. Motley is out of town so Mr. McKenna had a talk with Frank E. Dunbar, Esq., counsel for the company. The latter promised to bring the matter to the attention of Mr. Motley, and tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock Secretary McKenna will meet Mr. Glidden at the Touraine hotel, Boston. Mr. Glidden's letter is as follows:

June 21, 1908.

Mr. Henry A. Smith, President Lowell Board of Trade, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir: Lowell is a splendid location for an aero park for New England balloons. The club now numbers 100 members and you have the treasurer there in the person of Harry G. Pollard.

Worcester has tried to have us locate there, but personally I would like to see the club have a park in Lowell. All that is necessary is to have the gas company furnish on short notice forty to fifty thousand cubic feet of gas and 500 to 600 pounds of sand and a space near the gasometer for the accusation park. If you will make an appointment some time when in Boston, will be pleased to talk it over.

They furnish held to fill the balloon, sand, etc., at Pittsfield, and No. Adams, and charge us ninety cents per one thousand feet of gas. Delivering gas at that price at the gasometer is profitable and saves loss by distribution, etc. The quality is very essential and should test out .35 that will lift about forty-five pounds to the one thousand cubic feet.

Here is a chance to bring Lowell to the front in this great movement of aeronautics. The press can help the movement along. Lowell leads well in automobile matters.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Charles J. Glidden.

DARING ROBBERY

Yeggmen Held Up a Train in Tyngsboro

One of the most daring train robberies ever perpetrated in the vicinity of Lowell took place this morning between three and four o'clock when a party of robbers, evidently Yeggmen, disabled a southbound freight train in Tyngsboro, and while the train hands were busily engaged in making the necessary repairs the robbers broke into sixteen of the cars and managed to secure a quantity of cigars, liquor, shoes and other miscellaneous articles.

That the work must have been done by a well organized gang of robbers was evident from the daring manner they took to bring the train to a stop in one of the most secluded spots between Concord and Boston. Then again the work of breaking into and pilfering the contents of the cars was done with a number of trainmen within a very short distance of the cars which were broken into, demonstrates the daring methods adopted.

Whether or not the men had a wagon in waiting and carried off the goods in that manner, or whether they carried away part in their arms and hid the rest of the booty, is not known. The work must have been carefully planned beforehand and has every appearance of having been done by men skilled in such business. The police in Massachusetts and New Hampshire have been notified of the break.

The train in question is one of the regular freight trains which is made up in Concord, N. H., and goes through to Boston.

Where the men boarded the train is not known, but it must have been either while it was passing through the yards at Nashua Junction or at some point farther north. One or more of the men must have been riding the bumpers and when the train reached the secluded spot the rubber pipe was cut with a sharp knife. In all probability the robbers then made for cover in the woods until the attention of the train hands had been attracted to the place where the job had been done and then while the railroad men were making repairs the robbers went to another portion of the train and broke into the cars.

It being one of the highest freights between the northern and southern points of this division of the railroad.

When the train reached a point near Tyngsboro it came to a sudden stop. The engineer closed the throttle and applied the brakes and the engineer, fireman and train hands with lanterns alighted and started looking for the trouble.

After some little time it was found that one of the rubber air pipes used for connection between cars had been cut, and caused the train to come to such a sudden stop.

A new piece of pipe was secured and the connection made, but the train was delayed for some little time and it was during this delay that the robbers broke the seals on the car doors, pried the doors open with jimmies, and performed their work.

The break had not been discovered until a few minutes before the train was ready to start, and at that time there was no sign of the Yeggs.

After some little time it was found that one of the rubber air pipes used for connection between cars had been cut, and caused the train to come to such a sudden stop.

A new piece of pipe was secured and the connection made, but the train was delayed for some little time and it was during this delay that the robbers broke the seals on the car doors, pried the doors open with jimmies, and performed their work.

The break had not been discovered until a few minutes before the train was ready to start, and at that time there was no sign of the Yeggs.

Where the men boarded the train is not known, but it must have been either while it was passing through the yards at Nashua Junction or at some point farther north. One or more of the men must have been riding the bumpers and when the train reached the secluded spot the rubber pipe was cut with a sharp knife. In all probability the robbers then made for cover in the woods until the attention of the train hands had been attracted to the place where the job had been done and then while the railroad men were making repairs the robbers went to another portion of the train and broke into the cars.

It being one of the highest freights between the northern and southern points of this division of the railroad.

When the train reached a point near Tyngsboro it came to a sudden stop. The engineer closed the throttle and applied the brakes and the engineer, fireman and train hands with lanterns alighted and started looking for the trouble.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Grover Cleveland, contrary to general belief, died a poor man, relatively speaking.

The opinion was generally held that he possessed a considerable estate and that his family would be well provided for. Inquiry has developed the fact, however, that he has left his widow and four children practically nothing except the house at Princeton and the places at Buzzards Bay and Tamworth, N. H.

When Mr. Cleveland left the White House after his second term, it is said he and his wife had an income between them of $10,000 a year. When he saw his children growing up and realized he was getting to be an old man his income often worried him because of the future of the young wife and children. He would accept nothing from friends, they say, though they were ready and willing to aid him in any way. He was extremely proud on this score, but he could not conceal the fact that he was not at ease.

It is said now he did not live in New York for the sole reason that it was cheaper to live in Princeton, and in Princeton he could maintain the style he felt would be demanded of him.

His income was added to by $500 a year when he became one of the trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Then when he was made head of the association of life insurance presidents at a salary of $5,000, his friends who knew of his financial limitations rejoiced. However, he held that place only a year.

Mr. Cleveland had some money on deposit in the Knickerbocker Trust company, a fact which came out at the time the company closed its doors. An intimate friend who is familiar with Mr. Cleveland's financial affairs said yesterday that he may have had some money in addition to this deposit, but it was a trifling amount.

Mr. Cleveland was a great believer in life insurance, but for the past 15 years he had been in bad health. If he held any insurance that will go to his wife and children. It is believed to have been taken out before he entered the White House for his second term as president.

CRUISER SALEM

MADE AN AVERAGE SPEED OF 25.946 KNOTS.

BOSTON, June 26.—In her four hours' endurance run yesterday, the new scout cruiser Salem, built by the Fore River company, made an average speed of 25.946 knots. The Salem started from a point off Monhegan at 11 a. m., and dropped anchor in Nantasket Roads at 6 o'clock last night. During the second and third hours the average speed was 25.01, but at the beginning of the fourth hour one of the two engines became disabled, and the speed of the ship fell off to a trifle under 25 knots. The ship behaved well. The engines worked smoothly and no vibration was noticeable.

The cruiser easily surpassed the government requirement of 24 knots with 348 revolutions of the screw per minute, attaining a speed of 25.946 knots and it was found to secure 24 knots an hour that but 335.2 revolutions were necessary.

The cruiser took on coal and water last night and will sail at 8.30 in the morning on her 24-hour 12-knot endurance run. The following day she will be speeded at 22 knots an hour for 24 hours.

Five Airships to Contest for Glidden Trophy

NORTH ADAMS, June 26.—Before Charles J. Glidden, the world tourist, had started in his balloon Boston from this city yesterday morning, it was announced that there would be a five-balloon race from this city August 14.

A. Holland Forbes of New York who was Mr. Glidden's companion and critic in yesterday's flight, set the date for the race because he is the giver of the cup. Two months ago he presented the cup to the North Adams aero club for the race, he being a member of the club.

The conditions are that each contestant shall pick out on the morning of the race the town post office to which he thinks he can sail nearest; the contestant making the best sail to his place of destination to be declared the winner of the cup. The post office picked out must be at least 40 miles away, and the balloon to win must be at least within 10 miles of the post office chosen.

Mr. Glidden entered the Boston this morning for the race; Mr. Forbes has entered his Conqueror, the largest balloon in America; the Sky Pilot will be entered by Messrs. Morgan and Wade of Cleveland, and North Adams, No. 1 and the Greylock of this city will be in the race.

This will be the biggest balloon event in the United States with the exception of the St. Louis races.

LANDED IN WILBRAHAM.

WILBRAHAM, June 26.—The second voyage of the balloon "Boston" and the 10th of Charles J. Glidden, that will qualify him as pilot No. 12 of the Aero club of America and No. 1 of the Aero club of New England, was successfully made yesterday from North Adams at 9.20 a. m., an easy landing being made on the farm of Charles Mowry at Wilbraham Centre, two miles from North Wilbraham station. Mr. Glidden was accompanied by A. Holland Forbes of New York, who was making his 15th ascension.

At the start the balloon carried 500 pounds of ballast. After hovering over the city a few minutes at an elevation of 1000 feet, the Hoosac mountain was crossed at the westerly door of the tunnel, where the cool air sent the balloon down at the expense of considerable sand. At an elevation of 4000 feet, variable winds caused the balloon basket to rock not unlike a small boat in a well, a new experience to both aeronauts.

The voyage could well be called "an aerial sail among the colleges," for at one time Wilbraham academy, Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Amherst and the Massachusetts agricultural college were visible. The highest elevation reached was 7400 feet. At 11.11 o'clock the Tip Top house of Mt. Holyoke was directly under the basket 6130 feet below. To the right was Mt. Tom, the city of Springfield covering about as much space as Boston common.

Mrs. Holyoke and Tom appeared like huge "A" tents with a heavy green covering. The sun and clouds caused much up and down movements and ascensions three hours before dark are the most desirable. A cool breeze off Mt. Holyoke caused a drop of 3500 feet and made a landing necessary on account of loss of sand in a 30-mile wind.

SHOT HERSELF

WOMAN HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH.

HERBON, N. H., June 26.—Miss Hattie Kimball, aged 45 years, committed suicide late yesterday by shooting herself through the head with a rifle. She had been in poor health for some time and was believed to have become despondent. With a sister, Miss Ellen Kimball, she had begun the erection of a boarding house to accommodate the summer visitors.

Grover Fels Mentioned for the Place

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 26.—The next captain of the Yale baseball team will undoubtedly be Grover Cleveland Fels of Lowell, Mass.

Fels is a member of the junior class in the Sheffield Scientific school, and is shortstop on the varsity team.

Last year he played shortstop on the freshman team, and before that played the same position at Andover.

He is a member of the Sheffield society, "Book and Snake," and plays right wing on the Yale hockey team.

There is no academic man who will be a senior next year who is eligible for captain except Van Vleet, and there is feeling against electing a pitcher.

Wileton, who was considered a possibility for a time, is out of the race, and will vote for Fels.

The election will be held in New York following next Saturday's game with Harvard.

6 O'CLOCK PUBLIC HEARING

The Trades and Labor council have asked for a public hearing on what the council alleges to be a violation of the eight-hour law, having in mind the sewer bosses who are working twelve hours a day. Action in the matter was taken at the last meeting of the council and the following letter, which is self-explanatory, has been addressed to the mayor:

Lowell, Mass., June 22, 1908.
Hon. F. W. Farnham, Mayor, City of Lowell.

Dear Sir:—
By a vote of our council at its meeting June 21, 1908, I was instructed to write you and request that you set a date for a public hearing on the violation of the eight-hour law.

A committee consisting of one delegate from each craft affiliated with our council was appointed to attend the hearing and we wish the board of aldermen, common councilmen, heads of departments and City Solicitor Hill be requested to attend the hearing and have the matter discussed that a fair understanding may be had by all.

Trusting that you will arrange for an early hearing, I remain,
Respectfully yours,
A. W. Hersome,
Secretary Pro Tem.

Mayor Farnham will arrange for the hearing to be held next Wednesday evening, and the city messenger has been instructed to send out the necessary notices.

Supt. Morse of the street and sewer departments has already expressed himself on the matter. He has only four or five sewer bosses and between 500 and 600 men to be bossed. The men are working six hour shifts, and in order to keep them at work Mr. Morse says it is necessary for the bosses to work twelve hours.

"I can make it a four-hour shift," said Mr. Morse and use about half the number of men. My bosses, however, are willing and anxious to work twelve hours a day in order that the other five or six hundred men may get their bread and butter out of it."

City Solicitor Hill allows that any law which would prevent or interfere with a man working more than eight hours a day, providing he wanted to work more than eight hours, would be unconstitutional on the very face of it, and he has already given an opinion to that effect.

THE OFFICERS

ELECTED BY COURT GENERAL
SHIELDS, F. OF A.

Court General Shields, F. of A., met in regular session last evening at Foresters' hall, Chief Ranger Patrick Garty presiding. The meeting was largely attended, the occasion being the semi-annual election of officers, which resulted in the choice of the following: Chief ranger, Patrick Garty; sub-chief ranger, Edward McAvoy; recording secretary, William C. Boles; senior woodward, Patrick Roark; junior woodward, John Daly; senior beadle, James Boland; junior beadle, James E. Loring; lecturer, Thomas A. Green. The installation of officers will take place at the next regular meeting, July 31st. Matters pertaining to the good and welfare of the court were discussed by Brothers Keegan, Moss, McDougall and Hallisey.

TO EUROPE

The following well known Lowell people embark for Europe on July 4 and as they are all going on the same boat they should not be long gone: Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Collins, Wm. L. Gookin, Chas. H. Molloy and Miss Frances Molloy, Miss Yvonne Lemaitre and John Salmon and father.

ISAAC E. WOTTON

Will be Sentenced Next Week

Isaac E. Wotton appeared in the superior criminal court at East Cambridge yesterday afternoon and was arraigned before Judge Aiken at 4:15 o'clock, having been summoned by the district attorney's office to appear on the complaint charging him with having accepted a bribe.

Mr. Wotton was convicted at the last session at the superior criminal court before Judge Bell. The defence took exception to the verdict of the jury and the case went to the supreme court. The supreme court has not yet ruled on those exceptions, but District Attorney Higgins wanted sentence imposed on Mr. Wotton at this session of the court regardless of whether or not the report was received from the supreme court.

George R. Swasey of Boston, Wotton's counsel, said he had not received notice until last evening that his client was to be sentenced today and he asked that the imposition of sentence be delayed so that Mr. Wotton might have a chance to arrange his business.

Judge Aiken said: "I intended to adjourn this court tomorrow but will keep open today longer and I will see Judge Bell Saturday, and tell him I have kept the court open one week longer because the district attorney wants to have sentence pronounced on Wotton at this time."

Wotton will be sentenced next week by Judge Bell.

AN IMMORTAL

"And they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy."
Once more celestial asphodels, their greetings wave.
Once more a pilgrim's weary feet Heaven's waters lave.

One more glad soul set free,
To wing its flight,
From out its prison house of clay
To realms of light.

Where that far clime may be,
We do not know
Beyond the shining of the sun,
Or gleam of snow.

Somewhere in God's wide world there stands
The great white throne—
The blessed home of peace, and love
Now claims its own.

ROMANCE OF LOVE BIG IMPROVEMENT

Revealed by Death of a Millionaire In Business Expected by Morgan

PARIS, June 25.—The death here of Benjamin Hart, a millionaire American who has resided in Paris almost continuously for the past twenty-five years, has uncovered a romance which promises to have a court scene in a suit brought by the adopted daughter whom Mr. Hart disinherited in his will. Hart was a Virginian by birth, but he was well known in New York, where he lived for many years and where he amassed a large fortune during the Civil war. He was married while he lived in America, but later was divorced. As there were no children to the union, Mr. Hart, during one of his visits to Paris, became interested in a pretty three-year-old child, Isabel Luchesi, and arranged with the parents to adopt her as his own daughter.

The little girl was tenderly reared by Hart after the divorce from his wife and every care was bestowed upon her education and training. In 1892, when Isabel was 17 years of age, Hart formally adopted her in New York. The adopted daughter about this time contracted a brilliant marriage with a distinguished young French diplomat, Jean Guillemin, who is well known in America, where he was dispatched by M. Delcasse upon two missions.

Soon after this Hart formed a mesalliance with a Madame de Bie, and installed her as the mistress of his splendid Paris home. It is charged that Madame de Bie conceived a violent hatred for the daughter because the latter refused to recognize her.

At any rate, when Mr. Hart died it was found that he had left a will specifically disinheriting the adopted daughter and bequeathing all his property, which amounts to several millions of dollars, to Madame de Bie. Guillemin has instructed the lawyer, Donald Harper, to bring suit to break the will on the ground of undue influence. The document will also be contested, as it was drafted in accordance with the New York law, whereas it is claimed Hart was domiciled in France.

Mr. Hart's will will come up for probate before the surrogate of New York on July 30.

LAWN PARTY

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

A very successful lawn party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Martha White, 1253 Middlesex St., the affair being under the auspices of Elvira Lodge of Good Templars.

The grounds were prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and the evening was spent in music, singing and games. That the affair was financially successful, as well as enjoyable, is shown by the fact that nearly $55 was realized for the benefit fund. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ida Tilton, Mrs. Annie Corbett, Mrs. E. A. Christian, Miss Nye, White, Will Smith and George Tilton, Jr.

BAPTIST PICNIC

Grand Outing at Canobie Lake

The Baptists and Free Baptist churches of this city held their annual picnic at Canobie Lake park, yesterday. There was a large attendance and the day was all that could be desired. The picnicers were carried to the scene of the outing on special cars and there wasn't a dull moment during the day. The following churches were represented:

First Baptist, Branch Street Baptist, Fifth Street Baptist, Paige Street Free Baptist, Chelmsford Street Free Baptist, Mt. Vernon Free Baptist and the Hadley Street Free Baptist.

A greater portion of the day was taken up by an athletic meet for the Sunday school championship and the contest was an interesting one. Each church had its representatives and points were scored as follows:

First Baptist church, 35 points; Fifth street, 11; Worthen street, 10; Mt. Vernon, 2; Branch street, 7, and Chelmsford street, 1.

The events were won as follows:

100-yard dash for boys: First Coupe, First Baptist; second, Stiles, Fifth St.; third, Crossland, First Baptist.

100-yard dash for girls: First, Myrtle Taylor, First Baptist; second, Mildred Taylor, Fifth Street; third, Flora Clark, First Baptist.

Three-legged race: First, Parkinson and Seonke, First Baptist; second, Cory and Legatt, Worthen Street; third, Field and Goldthwaite, Worthen Street.

Men's relay race: First, Worthen street; second, Branch street; third, First Baptist.

Baseball throwing: First, Miss Eastman, Mt. Vernon; second, Flora Clark, First Baptist.

Potato race for boys: First, Stiles, Fifth street; second, Harrison, Branch street; third, Mixer, Chelmsford street.

Peanut race for girls: First, Myrtle Taylor, First Baptist; second, Alice Cowdrey, Mt. Vernon; third, Ruth Foss, Branch street.

There was a corking baseball game between the crack team of the First Baptist church and a picked team from all the Sunday schools. Al. Haynes of Vermont university pitched for the First Baptist. The score was 15 to 12 in favor of the First Baptist.

The officials of the sports were:

Referee, Rev. Geo. E. Tomkinson; judges, Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, Rev. F. McDonald, Rev. A. E. Kenyon; inspectors, Rev. A. P. Wedge, Rev. A. R. Toothaker, Rev. F. McLehman; scorer, Rev. CHILDREN ABUSED.

Mr. Editor: As a resident of Wigginsville I wish to say a word in regard to the mother of a small family in this neighborhood. The little children are fastened up in a room in the house for hours nearly every day and let cry until the neighbors around are all unnerved. That mother's heart must be made of stone. People have threatened to complain of her and if she doesn't take a hint from this we will go farther. The children hardly ever see the outside of the door. The idea of shutting little children up this summer weather is outrageous. We want it published.

PRETTY WEDDING

At the Noyes' Country Home in Tyngsboro

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Noyes in Tyngsboro was the scene, last evening, of one of the prettiest of June weddings. The contracting parties were Miss Adelaide F. Pike, of Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., and Mr. Harman C. Dodd, the bride is a sister of Mrs. Harry K. Noyes and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dodd. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Edwin B. Pike, of Pike, N. H., and C. E. Fisher of the First Universalist church, this city, performed the ceremony, the Episcopal two ring service being used. The maid of honor was Miss Edith B. Pike, sister of the bride, and the bridemaids, all from the Castle school, Tarrytown, were the Misses Florence Yorpe, Edith Young, Marie Smith and Nina Danton. The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Mr. Bertram Dodd, and Master Harold Noyes was ring bearer, carrying the wedding rings in a calla lily. The bride wore a white chiffon gown, trimmed with orange blossom and carried a bunch of white roses. The maid of honor wore pink liberty satin and carried white roses, and the bridemaids were attired in white over pink silk and carried pink roses.

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin introduced the ceremony, which took place under an arch of yellow roses. During the ceremony, Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" was played, and afterwards Mendelssohn's wedding march. The other decorations were all in pink, white and yellow roses. After the ceremony the bride was showered with rose leaves by her sisters, and with confetti by the others present. The gifts were numerous, rich and beautiful.

In the receiving line at the reception there were, besides the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Noyes, Mr. E. B. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill A. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dodd. The ushers were Messrs. Clarence B. Rexford, W. Percival Ogden, Alfred A. Gustafson and Arthur J. Meredith. The guests were mostly from out of town, New York, Tarrytown, Connecticut and Boston.

FROM COMPANY M SOMERVILLE BOY

The Boys Are Having An Enjoyable Time

CAPT. McNULTY AND HIS MEN

Lieuts. O'Donnell and McArdle Quite Busy

The following letter is from one of the members of Company M, now in camp at Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, Boston harbor.

Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, June 25th.

The second battalion of the 9th regiment stationed at Fort Andrews, is pleasantly situated on a sandy plain close to the shore and while the beach itself isn't of a sandy nature this doesn't prevent the boys from bathing every day in the bay. The camp is a thoroughly up-to-date one, in every respect, having shower baths. The company streets are well lighted by electricity, and the best of sanitary arrangements prevail. Dr. P. F. Butler who is on duty with the battalion is very attentive to his work, keeping a careful watch on the company cooks and the cleanliness of their kitchens and ice chests. Captain Philip McNulty was officer of the day, on Tuesday, Lieut. Bernard F. McArdle was commander of the guard on Thursday, while Lieut. Thomas J. O'Donnell has been detailed to act as quartermaster. Lieut. O'Donnell had rather a strenuous time of it the first three days, getting the camp into shape as there was much poling to be done and looking up of baggage that had gone astray, as well as sending tentage to the other battalions stationed at different posts.

Captain Nesbit and Lieutenant Frankenburgh, instructors at West Point are the officers detailed to act in the same capacity at this post, and as they spend all their time with the boys there will be a great improvement by the end of the week. Schools are held daily for both officers and men and matters that are talked over at these sessions are put into practice the next day. It is expected that an armed party will attempt to make a landing sometime during the week, consequently the troops are carefully looking over the island in order that they may be familiar with the territory and at what points to dig their trenches so they may command a full view of the coast. While all are impressed with the seriousness of camp life still they don't forget to participate in the social side, of which there is a great deal in the Company M street.

Sergeant Ed. Worthen is the commander of the scouting parties and he has been very successful in the performance of his duty. Monday night he gallantly led his scouts, who were heavily armed with lighted candles, along the shore seeking for spies and one of the rookie scouts stumbled over a desperate spy who was trying to conceal himself in the sand. He was immediately tried and sentenced to be shot. The shooting was postponed until the last night in camp.

It is rumored about the camp that the sergeant will charge up the hill tonight at eleven o'clock and attempt to remove the military crest. Whether he will be successful in this daring and almost hopeless attack is the subject of a great deal of questioning among the rookies. The boys are in good health and are enjoying life, having the privilege of going to Nantasket after work is over, providing they have conducted themselves properly during the day. Visitors are few and far between as yet, but it is expected there will be many during the latter part of the week.

Anyone desiring to visit the camp may do so. Peddocks Island is reached by the Nantasket boat which stops at Pemberton and a ferry from the island will take the visitors to the camp field from Pemberton. Lowell papers are very scarce and the boys, I know, would greatly appreciate reading The Sun.

SECRETARY TAFT

DID NOT LEAVE NEW HAVEN WITH HIS WIFE.

NEW HAVEN, June 26.—Secretary Taft after four days of work and festivities to the commencement exercises at Yale today concludes his sojourn at New Haven. Mrs. Taft and Master Charles left here at 9.35 a. m. for New York.

At the last moment Secretary Taft who had planned to go with them decided not to go to New York until some time this afternoon. Mrs. Taft and her son will go directly to Washington where she will begin preparations for breaking up their home in the national capital. The family will spend practically the entire summer at Hot Springs, Va., only one or two short trips there to other points being in contemplation.

In explanation of his sudden change of plans Secretary Taft said that some conferences which he was to have had today in New York had to be abandoned on account of the funeral of the late President Cleveland.

"I have a considerable amount of correspondence which has been neglected for three or four days," said he, "and I am going to get it out of the way today. Here I can attend to it quickly whereas if I went to New York this morning I probably would be unable to do anything with it this afternoon."

CANAL WALL BUILDING.

The wall of the canal at the corner of Hanover and Merrimack streets is to be bulging out so as to fill up the canal if not speedily repaired. It will probably be a Sunday job for the Locks and Canals men.

SOMERVILLE BOY

Attempted to Shoot Boston Policeman

PATROLMAN'S HANDS WERE BURNED

The Boy Was Placed Under Arrest

BOSTON, June 26.—Lieut. Daniel F. Egan of the City Point police station had a narrow escape from being shot through the head and Patrolman Fred Seavey of the Dorchester station was burnt about the hands when a 15-year-old boy, who gave the name of John Sullivan of Somerville, pulled a revolver from his hip pocket and attempted to discharge the weapon in the face of Lieut. Egan. Patrolman Seavey seized the boy's arm when he pointed the revolver and when it went off his hands were burned by the powder. The bullet lodged itself in the floor at the side of the lieutenant's chair. Young Sullivan was charged with assault with a loaded revolver.

The boy later said that his name was Timothy J. Sullivan and that his parents were living in Portland, Me. He said he had been boarding in Somerville and later in this city. He was picked up in Dorchester bay this morning while in a rowboat, he belonged to a boat boat house. When he was taken to the station house and was asked his name he requested of the lieutenant that he might step behind the desk. Later in the day he said it was his plan to shoot Seavey and McGovern, another officer, but when he found he could not get in front of them he attempted to fire at the lieutenant.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

YOUNG TEDDY AND THE TRUSTS

IT SEEMS RATHER STRANGE THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WHO IS SO MUCH OPPOSED TO THE MAMMOTH TRUSTS, SHOULD SEND HIS SON TO LEARN THE STEEL BUSINESS WITH THE GREATEST AND PROBABLY THE WORST TRUST IN THE COUNTRY. IT MIGHT BE SUPPOSED THAT HE WOULD BE AFRAID THAT THE TRUST WOULD WEAN THE BOY AWAY FROM HIS FATHER'S PRINCIPLES OR THAT ON THE OTHER HAND THE TRUST MIGHT REGARD HIM AS DANGEROUS. IF YOUNG TEDDY SHOWS MUCH OF THE GRIT AND THE AGGRESSIVENESS OF HIS FATHER, IT WILL NOT TAKE HIM LONG TO MASTER THE STEEL BUSINESS AND EVENTUALLY TO RISE TO A PROMINENT POSITION IN THE TRUST. NO DOUBT THE FACT THAT HE IS THE SON OF THE PRESIDENT WILL GIVE HIM GREAT ADVANTAGES OVER OTHER BOYS IN RISING FROM THE BOTTOM OF THE LADDER TO THE TOP. BUT HAVING ONCE REACHED THE TOPMOST ROUND WILL YOUNG ROOSEVELT REFORM THE TRUST OR WILL HE EMULATE THE CROESUS LIKE WEALTH OF CARNEGIE AND CARNEGIE'S METHODS OF SPENDING MONEY WRUNG FROM THE PEOPLE BY TRUST EXTORTIONS?

SHELTERS IN PUBLIC PARKS

OUR PUBLIC PARKS ARE VERY DEFICIENT IN SHELTERS UNDER WHICH THE PEOPLE MIGHT TAKE REFUGE DURING A SHOWER OR ON A VERY HOT DAY.

THE PARK DEPARTMENT HAS PROVIDED SOME APPARATUS ON THE COMMON FOR THE USE OF CHILDREN, AMONG THESE BEING SAND BOXES AND METALLIC SLIDES.

IT MUST BE OBVIOUS TO EVERYBODY THAT LITTLE CHILDREN CANNOT SAFELY BE ALLOWED TO PLAY IN THESE SAND BOXES UNDER THE GLARE OF THE SUN ON A HOT DAY SUCH EXPOSURE TO THE SUN WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY BE TOO MUCH FOR THEM TO ENDURE WITHOUT INJURY; AND FOR THIS REASON THE SAND BOXES UNLESS ROOFED OVER ARE NOT WITHOUT DANGER TO SMALL CHILDREN. AS TO THE METALLIC SLIDES THEY BECOME SO HEATED UNDER CONTINUOUS EXPOSURE TO THE SUN ON A HOT DAY, THAT CHILDREN HAVE BEEN BURNED BY ATTEMPTING TO SLIDE ON THEM DURING THE HEAT OF THE DAY. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT THE PARK DEPARTMENT WILL PROVIDE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE PROPER SHELTERS FOR THE PEOPLE AND SUITABLE PROTECTION FOR THE SLIDES, THE SAND BOXES AND THE OTHER APPARATUS SO THAT ALL MAY BE ENJOYED EVEN IN HOT WEATHER WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS DANGER.

ENCOURAGING BUSINESS OUTLOOK

IT WOULD SEEM TO BE AN UTTER IMPOSSIBILITY TO MAINTAIN A BUSINESS DEPRESSION EVEN FOR THE NEXT SIX MONTHS, IN VIEW OF THE GRAND PROSPECTS OF ABUNDANT HARVESTS, THE GREAT HAY AND GRAIN CROPS AND THE APPARENT REVIVAL IN RAILROADING AND MANUFACTURING.

THE CENSUS OF FREIGHT CARS NOW IN USE IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA SHOWS A REDUCTION OF ABOUT THIRTY THOUSAND IN THE NUMBER OF IDLE CARS SINCE LAST MONTH. THIS INDICATES A GREAT INCREASE IN TRANSPORTATION WHICH MUST BE DUE OF COURSE TO A CORRESPONDING INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTS OF INDUSTRY.

THE MOST FAVORABLE REPORTS SEEM TO COME FROM THE EASTERN, MIDDLE AND NORTH ATLANTIC STATES WHERE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES ARE NUMEROUS. SOME MAY NOT SHOW COMPLETE RECOVERY FOR A COUPLE OF MONTHS, JULY AND AUGUST ARE USUALLY DULL MONTHS ANYHOW, AND THIS YEAR MAY BE NO EXCEPTION. BUT FROM THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER A STEADY IMPROVEMENT IS LOOKED FOR AN IMPROVEMENT TOO THAT WILL SOON REACH THE NORMAL CONDITIONS OF PROSPERITY THAT PREVAILED TWO YEARS AGO.

HIGHER TAX RATE

THE CITY OF BOSTON IS ALARMED AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE TAX RATE FOR THIS YEAR WILL REACH THE UNPRECEDENTED FIGURE OF $10.00 PER $100. THE CITY OF LOWELL WOULD DECLARE ONE OF THE GRANDEST CELEBRATIONS IN ITS HISTORY IF IT WERE ASSURED OF A REDUCTION IN THE TAX RATE TO $7.

SUED FOR DIVORCE

THERE SURELY MUST BE SOME THING WRONG HERE.

NEWARK, N. J., June 25.—Vice-Chancellor Emery, of Newark, is trying to unravel a strange story that was told in his courtroom at the trial of a divorce suit. The action was brought by John H. Crane, Dover, against Minnie E. Crane. He asks for a divorce on the ground of desertion, but the defendant is contesting it on the ground that she is not and never was his wife. The couple have an eleven-year-old son.

John Crane asserts that one May day in 1884 he took the defendant out for a carriage ride from her home near New Brunswick, N. J., and drove to the latter place, where they were married by the Rev. W. E. Irving. He exhibited a marriage certificate ostensibly signed by the minister named. Old residents of the town declare that there was never a minister of that name in the place.

The defendant, who says her name is Minnie E. Smith, denies the story told by the petitioner. She admits taking the carriage ride, but asserts it was on Thanksgiving day in 1886 and not in the May following. She declares that he was seventeen and she sixteen at the time. While on the ride they stopped at the home of a minister to get married, but he was not at home. They then drove to the parsonage of a church in a neighboring town, only to find that minister also absent. Then they returned and declared they had been married, having agreed to have the ceremony performed later.

But, according to the woman, the ceremony has never been performed. When she wanted to get married, she says, Crane was not ready, and when he finally made up his mind to take her as his legal wife she concluded not to have him. Through her counsel, she presented the records of the bureau of vital statistics at Trenton, showing that there is no record in the state of the alleged marriage.

It was intimated by Crane's counsel when he found that there was no record of the marriage and that the certificate was probably bogus that at least a common law marriage existed, but the court held that the petitioner had alleged a ceremonial marriage and had produced a certificate, and the question of a common law marriage could not be injected into the case at this time.

BELLS TO TOLL

MAYOR McCLELLAN MAKES REQUEST TO PASTORS.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Mayor McClellan, in an announcement yesterday, requested the ministers of all churches in New York City to have the bells in their churches toll from 5 to 5.30 o'clock this afternoon, during the funeral services at Princeton. The board of governors of the Consolidated stock exchange declared to suspend the business of exchange at one o'clock as a token of respect for Mr. Cleveland. With the simultaneous closing of the New York stock exchange and the consolidated exchange, business in the financial district will be practically at a standstill. The banks, however, will remain open as usual.

THE C. Y. M. L.

CONTINUES TO ADD TO ITS MEMBERSHIP.

The regular weekly meeting of the Catholic Young Men's League was held last night. President Andrew Smith, presided and the report of the last meeting was read by the secretary and accepted.

The membership of both the league and the gymnasium continues to grow. There were four propositions for membership received and three candidates were admitted.

The committee on athletics reported that the League would be represented at Washington park on July 14, by a competent squad of athletes. The League will have as its delegate for the benefit to be held on July 14, President Smith.

The Country club composed of members of the League has now a membership of over 200, at its recreation grounds.

The return debate to be held with the Y. M. C. A. of Lawrence will take place in the near future.

The election of the officers for the ensuing six months will be held on Thursday evening, July 2. The election will be followed by a smoke talk, the entertainment committee will present a musical program.

There are about twenty-five candidates for the chair and some lively battles will ensue.

A new committee was appointed by the president last evening to procure material for the establishing of a large debating society. The League has some fluent talkers and they have taken kindly to the formation of a permanent debating club.

The gymnasium committee has secured the services of Frank Davey, the local wrestler, for the coming winter. Mr. Davey, will form classes of members who desire to learn the game.

The track team is putting in daily practice on the boulevard. A cross country run will be participated in by the members in a short time.

LARGE MEETING

The regular meeting of Division 28, A. O. H., was held last night, there being a large attendance of members.

President Cotter called to order shortly after eight o'clock and considerable business of importance was transacted during the evening. At the conclusion of the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Songs were provided by Patrick Casey, Owen Healey, William Kennedy and Daniel Rourke. John Carr entertained with recitations, and William Flynn gave a good exhibition of clog dancing.

TWO ARRESTED

Charged With Assaulting Chas. J. Glidden

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., June 25.—Charged with assaulting Charles J. Glidden, the well known automobile and balloon enthusiast with a rifle with intent to kill, while Mr. Glidden was travelling over Brattleboro in a balloon with Leo Stevens last Friday, William Murphy, aged 30, and Charles Rikman, aged 33 years, of this city, were placed under arrest last night by Deputy Myron P. Davis.

According to Mr. Glidden, two bullets were fired at the balloon, apparently from a white barn many hundreds of feet below. One bullet grazed the balloon leaving a scar. The second bullet passed completely through the balloon and it became necessary for the balloonists to descend. Owing to the small diameter of the hole the gas in the balloon did not escape rapidly enough to endanger the lives of the occupants by the descent.

PASTOR RUSSELL

IS DISTINGUISHED AUTHOR AS WELL AS PREACHER.

Pastor Charles T. Russell of Pittsburgh, Pa., who will speak in Associate hall,

Sunday afternoon, is an eminent Bible scholar with an international reputation in religious circles as author, editor and lecturer. His best-known book is "The Divine Plan of the Ages," which is said to have a larger circulation than any other religious book in the world outside of the Bible, considerably more than 2,000,000 copies having been sold. Others of Pastor Russell's works are "The Time is at Hand," "Thy Kingdom Come," "The Day of Vengeance," "The At-one-ment," and "The New Creation." These volumes have been grouped under the serial title of "Studies in the Scriptures," and are issued in English, German, French, Swedish, Danish-Norwegian, Italian and Greek, while editions in the Dutch and Chinese languages are now being prepared. He is also the author of "Tabernacle Shadows of Better Sacrifices," "What Say the Scriptures About Hell?" and many smaller booklets and tracts.

THEATRE VOYONS

A bright, snappy comedy, a most pleasing, sentimental story and a dramatic subject full of life all go toward making the picture part of the Theatre Voyons program of unusual excellence. "The Fighting Parson" is a very good dramatic subject, telling of the kidnapping, for revenge, of two little children. The search made for them and their final rescue by the fighting parson. He is a mighty clever man with his fists and one who is not afraid to take a chance when duty calls. "The Persevering Lovers" is a somewhat different picture, telling of the trials of a couple of young people whose parents object to their being wed. The songs are very good, well sung and selected for just this kind of weather. The Victor-records between shows are proving a big hit as they present selections not only from grand opera by the world's greatest singers but other musical selections of great merit.

IN CENTRALVILLE

Big Parade on the "Night Before"

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Centralville "Night Before the Fourth" committee was held at headquarters, 334 Bridge street, last night, and the arrangements are now practically completed for the monster celebration to be held on week from tonight.

The sub-committees on music, features, etc., submitted very encouraging reports, and it was decided to offer prizes as follows:

For sham-bang features, first prize, $100; second prize, $75; third prize, $25; team prizes, first, $15; second, $10; individual sham-bang, first, $10; second, $5. For military features, $100 was set aside to be proportioned according to the number of men in line of each company.

The route of parade was discussed at some length, but it was decided to make a final decision relative to the route of march next Sunday afternoon when all arrangements will be completed. At that meeting also the chief marshal will submit a list of aids and also announce the division marshals. The following is a list of contributions up to date:

A NOVEL SCHEME

To Make Liquor Drinkers Wear Badges

NEW YORK, June 26.—That buyers of alcoholic beverages as well as sellers of them be compelled to take out licenses is the proposition which George De Cuhna, an architect with offices in New York, has embodied in an ordinance which he has presented for adoption in his home town of Montclair, N. J., near here. Under the proposed ordinance every purchaser of a drink must be supplied with a license and a metal badge. Should a liquor dealer sell to a man not thus tagged he would be rendered liable to prosecution with the revocation of the selling license as a penalty.

"BILL" TAFT

MAY GO INTO "TRAINING" AT MULDOON'S.

NEW YORK, June 26.—It is said that Secretary of State Root will arrive at Muldoon's sanitarium on the outskirts of White Plains tomorrow afternoon to undergo a course of training. William H. Taft, the presidential nominee, may join him there.

"Will Secretary Taft take a rest and a course of training under your direction?" Mr. Muldoon was asked. "I don't know now," he said. "It will be decided at Saturday after the meeting at Oyster Bay."

POP CONCERT

AT WASHINGTON CLUB ROOF GARDEN LAST NIGHT.

The "pop" concert and ladies' night of the Washington club was held last evening with a large and merry attendance. The roof garden on the Howe building was prettily decorated with graceful tropical plants, flowers, incandescents and the indispensable Japanese lanterns of fantastic design. The night was ideal and those who had the good fortune to be present enjoyed a delightful evening. The American band furnished a most acceptable program.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Neither Colin or Celt, the mainstays of James H. Keene's big stable this year, will start tomorrow in the $5,000 Coney Island Jockey Club stake at Sheepshead Bay. Mr. Keene said: "I am very sorry to have to say that my colts are under professional treatment and I do not know when they will appear again in public. I know that racegoers will be disappointed because they have formed a great affection for my colts."

AN INJUNCTION

Court Grants Petition of Glacia Calla

BOSTON, June 26.—Lillian G. Roy (Glacia Calla), who came into prominence last winter, when she made accusations against her husband, Paul

Roy, charging him with killing her brother, George A. Carkins, was yesterday granted a temporary injunction by Judge L. Courcy in the superior court restraining Edward E. Bennett of Fitchburg from selling or disposing of her ticket pledging a pearl necklace with a diamond clasp and a diamond and pearl bracelet to a company as security for loans to her amounting to $2200.

Lillian G. Roy's address was given as Boston. The tickets were originally issued under the name of Gladys Hodgdon. J. A. Farrer of the Pemberton building was the attorney in the case.

AT PORTSMOUTH

The Merrimack Valley
Boards of TradeWILL HOLD THEIR
OUTINGOfficials Not With Local
Board Yesterday

The presidents and secretaries of the Merrimack Valley boards of trade met at the rooms of the local board yesterday afternoon. Dr. M. F. Sullivan, president of the Lawrence board, called to order at 3 p. m. The boards of trade of the cities of the valley were represented by Pres. Dr. M. F. Sullivan and Secretary Chas. H. Littlefield of Lawrence; President J. N. Bachelder and Secretary A. M. Child of Haverhill; President Harry A. Smith and Secretary McKenna of Lowell and Secretary J. H. Dunlap of Manchester, while the New Hampshire state board was represented by Mr. M. T. Metcalf of Concord. Dr. Sullivan was elected chairman of the meeting and Mr. McKenna was chosen secretary.

The question of an outing was the first matter of discussion, and while all favored the proposition the Massachusetts men did not care to assume the responsibility. Finally Mr. Dunlap kindly invited the Massachusetts cities to join with the New Hampshire state board of trade in their outing in Portsmouth, early in September, when the battleship New Hampshire will be visited. The invitation was gladly accepted.

President Smith of the local board introduced the project of making the Merrimack river navigable and told what had been done in recent years in that direction. There was much interest shown, especially from Haverhill. The Haverhill board has made a request to the national government for a committee to ascertain whether a dam built at Amesbury, which would probably give to Haverhill 14 additional feet of water, would be feasible. Since then the New England corps of geologic surveyors has been at work on the practicability of the scheme and will report at Washington in the fall on their results.

The last matter of discussion was relative to the sewage of the Merrimack Valley. Lawrence and Haverhill desire to use the water on account of the death of water and hence would divert the sewage from the Merrimack. No definite action was taken and all agreed that the matter will have to be settled by a commission appointed jointly from both states. The meeting adjourned at 4:40.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE.
The regular weekly meeting of the independence league was held Wednesday night in the Immaculate Conception school hall. Considerable business of importance was transacted and a great deal of enthusiasm was displayed.

NINTH REGIMENT

Repulsed the "Enemy"
After Hard Fight

FORT REVERE, June 25, 11 p. m.—After two hours of desperate fighting Companies E and I of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., have saved this post from the hands of the "enemy."

Shortly after dark there came a shot from a vigilant sentry on the eastern outpost. A few moments later the other outposts came running in and reported that the "enemy" was advancing in force from the direction of Stony Beach.

The call to arms rang out and the boys in brown had barely time to grasp their rifles before the "enemy" was charging up the hill.

When the smoke of battle had cleared away, an account of damages revealed but one fatality. One private slipped into a gully during the excitement of the moment and left part of his brown canvas trousers behind him. Fortunately the moon was not very bright and he succeeded in rescuing the missing portion under heavy fire.

The "enemy" comprised Companies B and H of the Ninth, and they deserve great credit for their excellent work as such. All other things being equal and their numbers the same the odds are all in favor of the defenders, yet the attacking party came very near winning.

There was another assault earlier in the day, with Companies H and I attacking. It was a stirring scene and a great crowd gathered on the water tower hill to witness the exciting work laid out below in a grand panorama.

First Lieutenant C. E. Leonard of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., went out with the "enemy" and Captain D. G. Barry, Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., was adviser for the defenders, who were declared the successful side.

WON REGULARS' COMMENDATION.
Owing to a shortage of ammunition, it was impossible to get the best results, but the way the "enemy" advanced won the commendation of the regulars.

"They are doing fine work," said one of the instructors to the Post correspondent. "The way the 'enemy' crawled along taking advantage of every bit of protection, was excellent. And then did you notice how they charged in small squads a short distance and then dropped for cover while the rest were firing to protect their advance?"

During the afternoon the volunteer infantry were engaged in studying trenching and similar work. Tomorrow they will have one of the most interesting days of the tour of camp duty. A special problem has been devised by the corps of instructors, and the officers and men of the militia must work it out, as if it were a case of actual war.

Similar work has been performed by the other Ninth in regiment companies at the various harbor forts today. Companies 7 and 11 of the coast artillery corps were given a fire command drill at Fort Revere. At Fort Banks and Heath and Fort Andrews similar work was done.

Companies 3 and 5 at Fort Strong, and Companies 1, 3 and 4, stationed at Fort Warren, had their anxiously anticipated service practice today. The 13th shot from the 10-inch rifles of Battery Hitchcock at Fort Strong smashed the target nearly five miles away into bits. The last two had to be shot without a target.

AT BELLE GROVE

ENJOYABLE DANCE BY THE IDEAL CLUB.

Belle Grove was the scene last evening of a most successful and enjoyable social and dance under the auspices of the Ideal Social club. It was the second event of the kind in the history of the club and the club members have good and sufficient cause to feel proud of the splendid success that attended their second social and dance.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Thomas H. Erwin and Miss Anna K. Parker were united in the holy bonds of marriage Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the parochial residence of St. Patrick's church by Rev. John J. McHugh.

The bride was prettily attired in white silk crepe de chine trimmed with Irish point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, tied with white ribbon. The bride, Miss Nancy S. Parker, sister of the bride, wore a similar dress and carried a nosegay of pink ribbon. The best man was Mr. John Leahy, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, and later a delicious supper was served to a host of immediate friends. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and the grounds illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin were the recipients of a wealth of beautiful and costly presents, including cut glass, silver, etc. They left on the 9:30 train amid a shower of confetti and with the best wishes of all their friends. After a short tour during which they will visit New York and the western states, they will reside at 834 Central street.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland to Be Buried This Afternoon

PRINCETON, N. J., June 26.—With out eulogy, sermon or song, but with the simple burial service of the Presbyterian church, Grover Cleveland will be buried late this afternoon in Princeton cemetery beside the ivy-covered grave of his daughter Ruth. Although President Roosevelt will be in attendance as will Gov. Fort of New Jersey, Gov. Hughes of New York, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia and other distinguished personages they will not attend in the late capacity but as friends of an old ex-president.

The last honors to be paid the dead statesman will be strictly private both at "Westland," the Cleveland residence and at the cemetery in compliance with the wishes not only of Mrs. Cleveland but those of Mr. Cleveland as well.

The services at the house which will begin at five o'clock will last about half an hour. The clergyman who will alternate in the ceremonies here and at the grave are the Rev. Henry Van Rye of Princeton university; the Rev. Dr. William R. Richards of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York; the Rev. Sylvester Beach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Princeton in which Mrs. Cleveland is a communicant; and the Rev. Mattland V. Bartlett, a former pastor of Mr. Cleveland and the present pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church of New York.

A change in the location of the casket during the funeral services was announced today. It was said instead of the body being placed in the library it will be in the reception room which is at the front of the east side of the house and across the broad hall of the library. The casket will be brought down stairs shortly before the funeral begins and it is expected that personal friends will be permitted to view the features of the dead statesman in the room where he died on the second floor but that the casket will be closed before it is taken to the reception room.

Mrs. Cleveland and her two children, Esther and Richard, who came from Taunton, the Cleveland summer home, last night; Miss Rose Cleveland, a niece of the former president; Miss Mary Hastings, a niece; Cleveland Bacon, a nephew and other immediate relatives will surround the bier in the library. Although 200 chairs were taken for the funeral, more than 200 were today placed about the house as it is expected only about 150 persons will attend the services. After the service which will consist only of the reading of scripture, the recital of the creed and prayer, the coffin will be borne from the reception room to the hearse for the journey to the cemetery. More than a score of carriages will be in the procession. The streets from "Westland" to the cemetery will be guarded by mounted troopers and members of the New Jersey state militia. Intersecting streets will be roped off and no pedestrians or vehicles will be allowed within the curb lines from the time the procession starts until after it has passed into the cemetery. The guardsmen are here merely to assist in policing the city and their presence was consented to by Mrs. Cleveland only on the ground that it was proper to have a suitable guard for the president.

Many beautiful floral tributes are being received at "Westland" and messages and letters of sympathy are still coming in large numbers.

Twenty-six carriages will convey the funeral party to the cemetery. The pallbearers will walk with the hearse, six on either side.

The officiating clergyman will occupy the first carriage and the second will contain Mrs. Cleveland and her son Richard and Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, of New York, the family physician. The third will be occupied by Miss Rose Cleveland and Miss Esther Cleveland. Cleveland Bacon, Miss Mary L. Hastings and Prof. and Mrs. Wood will ride in the fourth and the fifth and sixth will convey Mr. and Mrs. Huddell of Princeton, Mrs. John Pliny of New York, Mrs. Richard Watson Gilder, George Shipley, Miss Annie Hecker and Charles Rogers of Brooklyn. Following the family friends will come President and Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb in the seventh carriage and this will be followed by another containing four secret service men.

The town began to take on a more animated appearance today when hundreds of persons from nearby towns began to arrive, eager to see the funeral procession and to catch a glimpse of President Roosevelt. Outside the Cleveland home which stands in one of the prettiest parts of Princeton there were no signs during the morning of what will take place this afternoon.

The house stands far from the most frequented streets and few persons were in the vicinity. At the entrance to the Cleveland grounds a policeman stood guard and only those known to him or vouchered for by those in charge were permitted to enter the grounds. Among those who applied for admission was an elderly man who asked to be permitted to view the body of the former president. He proved to be "Tony" Leggett, of Trenton, N. J., who for years was Mr. Cleveland's companion on numerous shooting expeditions. He was at once admitted to the house and permitted to look upon the face of his long friend.

ROOM ENTERED

Watch and Chain and Money Stolen

The room occupied by Joseph Z. Davis, an employee of the Bigelow Carpet Co., at 434 Merrimack street, was broken into some time yesterday and a gold watch and chain, a sum of money and some clothing were stolen. The matter has been reported to the police but up to the time of going to press the identity of the person who committed the break had not been found.

DIFFICULT JOB

No Bottom to Fire House Site

Contractor Simpson is still probing for a bottom to the new fire house site in West Sixth street for which he is laying the foundation. There seems to be absolutely no bottom to the site of the fire house lot. Iron bars three times the length of crowbars have been pushed into the earth and no bottom can be found. The contractor and others are at a loss to know what to make of it. Some of the men employed on the job think it's a bit uncanny.

Mr. Simpson has not yet made up his mind as to how he will overcome the difficulty, but he allows that he will be able to think a way out of it. There was a time when the Merrimack river's bank came within a few yards of the land on which is the fire house site, and the land from that point to the river is, so the old settlers say, made land.

It would be a very serious affair should the fire house be built only to drop, without notice, into a bottomless abyss, and there is no telling but that might happen while the brave fire ladders were wrapped in the arms of Morpheus. Such an occurrence, of course, would make a peach of a story, but as much as we like good stories we would prefer the survival of the fire house and the firemen.

Then again such a calamity might bring about an international difficulty that would render it necessary for us to wallop a few million Chinamen. Of course this is a little far fetched, but if that fire house ever got to going it might not stop until it got to China, and great big fire house attaining a velocity not dreamed of by any fall would be liable to some mischief providing it should land in a city proper or a public assemblage.

JOHN P. MAHONEY

Former Assessor Died This Afternoon

Mr. John P. Mahoney, former member of the board of assessors, and one of Lowell's most prominent citizens, died at 2:30 this afternoon at his home in Butterfield street. Deceased was 59 years of age and was a member of the board of assessors for about twenty years. He was very active in Hibernal circles and held positions of prominence in several organizations. He was the first Lowell man to hold the position of president of the U. T. A. U. of the archdiocese of Boston. He also served as state secretary of the Hibernalists and relinquished this office when illness prevented the performance of duty. He was a leading member of the Celtics and at one time was prominent in the councils of the republican party. He was a most genial man, always ready and pleased to make friends and enjoyed a wide acquaintanceship. Mr. Mahoney was first elected assessor by the city council after a bitter fight and only with the aid of some democratic members of that body.

Every time after that he had no opposition to speak of until his last term, expired when a most formidable and successful contest was waged against him and he was defeated by Albert Blazon. Besides his widow he is survived by five sons, Dr. Daniel of Boston, John, Charles, George and Edward and two daughters, Annie, Loretta and Dorothy.

BRUTAL ASSAULT

Omega Wade Squirted Ammonia In to Young Man's Eyes and Mouth

Omega Wade, 42 years old, was arrested by Patrolman Peter Cavley this afternoon, and the arrest was made just in time to save Omega from an angry mob. He had squirted ammonia into the eyes and mouth of John Rourke, a boy employed as bootblack at the Richardson hotel. It is said that his act was a deliberate one, done without any provocation, whatever.

The boy's eyes and mouth were badly burned. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to Dr. Randle's office. The doctor attended him and the boy returned to the hotel. It will be several weeks before he will be able to do anything in the line of work.

It was in the basement of the hotel that the miserable and cowardly assault occurred and the first intimation about the hotel had of it was when the boy's cries were heard. Wade had then made his escape but there was a boy, a chum of Rourke's, who seemed to have an inkling of what had happened and he named Wade in the street. He threw Wade down and managed to hold him until the officer arrived.

Just as the officer had taken possession of Wade the crowd learned what he had done and they wanted to take him away from the officer. The latter, however, managed to keep Wade away from the mob, and when the patrol wagon came along with Wagon Officer Hickson aboard, the crowd shouted: "Soak him John! give him a gentle reminder, he's a cur!"

Searched at the police station Wade was found to have in his possession a bottle containing ammonia, another bottle containing a poisonous looking and miserable smelling fluid and a bottle of perfume. His fingers were covered with rings that were good, bad and indifferent. He was drunk and did not offer any excuse for what he had done. He was booked for drunkenness and assault and battery.

Wade was very indignant when asked to give up the rings he was wearing. "This is highway robbery," he shouted, and he tried to resist the officers but his attempt at resistance was a very feeble one and he was shorn of his jewelry in double quick time.

Those who know Omega Wade say that under the influence of liquor he is as dangerous as he is irresponsible.

Four or five years ago he had some trouble with young fellows in West Chelmsford. As he was leaving the village postoffice one night he was struck with a piece of ice thrown by one of the young men in question.

He was then taking care of horses at a stable in Brookside. The very next day he hit one of the horses to a light buggy and bled himself to a light blue with blood in his eye. He was ostensibly to get drunk and incidentally to buy a gun. He accomplished both purposes and went back to West Chelmsford to shoot up the town. He did the best he could. He drove through the town like a mad hatter discharging his revolver right and left. Fortunately the bullets did not hit anybody and a few hours later he was arrested by Link Rudick, then a constable in Westford.

Wade in the boiler room of the Brookside mills. Wade had driven the engineer to cover and was monarch of all he surveyed until Link showed up. The minute Link entered the door Wade, who had always had a whole some fear of Link, threw up his hands and surrendered. Those who know Wade best say he is of unsound mind.

With it a sort of Washingtonian or national prestige.

Supt. Whitcomb is perfectly satisfied with the present system, the vertical system, and he is not offering any argument in favor of a change. The primary teachers are for the vertical to a unit and the grammar masters are about equally divided. The children like it because it is simple and easy to learn, and the parents and others like it because it is neat and legible.

The committee, however, evidently think the vertical a bit prudish and they incline to the semi-slant. The committee members have agreed to believe that the vertical "rubbish over" is the proper caper and that is likely what the committee will recommend.

Supt. Whitcomb says that the proposed change will not be very expensive to the city because the Whitehouse people will take back all of the vertical system books that have not been used. The city, of course, would have to stand the expense of throwing away the books that are now in use, some 10,000 or more. In 1907 there were 9278 books in use in the day schools and 318 in the evening schools. But don't you care, Lowell is rich.

The argument is made that the vertical hand is a poor one to go out into business life with, because it is school-boyish and slow. Just how the committee arrived at the conclusion that the vertical hand would prove a handicap in the business world, because of its sluggishness and schoolhouse atmosphere has not been fully explained, but the fellows who are going to control the change have arrived at that conclusion. The committee's slogan is: "The public demands a slant."

Representatives of the vertical system assert that it is the fastest in the market and the foundation for their assertion is that the system has won first place in several speed tests.

The fourth inning opened with Thorneill hitting to Vandegrift and going out at first, while Connor and Donovan tied out to Howard.

Lowell tied the score in the latter half of the fourth inning. Howard opened with a base on balls and went to second on Duff's sacrifice. Wolfe sent the ball to center field for a single and Howard scored. Vandegrift singled to right field. At this point Capt. Connor of the visiting team wanted to bench Gilroy and put in another pitcher, but wanted to delay the game in order to give another pitcher time to warm up. The umpire refused to agree to this whereupon Connor ripped the ball. The umpire continued to pitch. Ainsmith drew a base on balls, filling the bases. Greenwell flied out to Thorneill and Shannon flied to Austin.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

FIFTH INNING.

In the fifth inning Norris struck out and Conney who took Gilroy's place hit to Shannon and was out at first. Messenger drew a base on balls, but was caught while trying to steal second.

Zinszar hit to Donovan and was out at first. Messenger hit to Connor and failed to reach first while Howard flied out to Austin.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

SIXTH INNING.

With three men on base and none out in the sixth inning Lowell pulled out of a very bad box. Kane opened with a base on balls. Austin bunted where it was almost impossible to get the ball and Thorneill hit to Vandegrift and Thorneill flied out. Greenwell hit to Thorneill and failed to tag him and make a double play. The result being that he failed to tag the runner and bases were filled. Thorneill struck out. Connor hit a red hot line drive which Greenwell knocked down and throwing to the plate nailed Kane. Donovan hit to short center field, Wolfe catching the ball.

Duff hit to Donovan and was out at first. Wolfe got hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Vandegrift singled. Ainsmith hit to Connor forcing Vandegrift at second. Ainsmith stole second, but Greenwell hit to Thorneill and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

SEVENTH INNING.

In the seventh inning Norris flied to Messenger and Conney flied out to Howard. Messenger drew a base on balls and Kane then hit to left field. Messenger tried to make third on the play and the ball was sent to Vandegrift but Messenger slid in and was safe. The ball was then sent to second and Kane was nailed.

In this inning Manager O'Brien of the Fall River team and Umpire O'Brien got into an argument and O'Brien ordered O'Brien off the grounds.

In the latter half of the inning Shannon drew a base on balls, but was thrown out trying to steal second. Zinszar hit to Donovan and was out at first. Magee hit to Connor and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

EIGHTH INNING.

Austin hit the ball to right field but Zinszar flied the ball quickly and threw him out at first. Toomey drew a base on balls. Thorneill flied out to Howard and the latter sent the ball to first to get Toomey, but Duff instead of tagging the base tried to tag the runner and Toomey slid back to the base and was safe. Connor got a single. Donovan flied out to Wolfe.

Howard struck out. Duff did likewise. Wolfe flied out to Kane.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

NINTH INNING.

Norris flied out to Wolfe. Conney got a single which almost knocked Vandegrift over. Messenger flied out to Wolfe. Conney tried to steal second and was thrown out by Ainsmith. Vandegrift hit to Thorneill and was out at first. Ainsmith hit to Donovan and was out at first. Greenwell got a base on balls. Shannon hit a fly to Messenger who was so sure of it that he dropped it. Greenwell went to second on the play. Zinszar flied out to Thorneill.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 2.

TENTH INNING.

Kane bunted to Vandegrift and was out at first. Austin hit a high line drive to Shannon who caught it and there were two out. Toomey got a single to right field. Thorneill hit to Shannon, forcing Toomey at second. Magee flied out to Norris. Howard hit to right field for a single, sending Howard to second. Wolfe hit one too hot for Donovan to handle, filling the bases. Vandegrift got a single, scoring Howard.

Score—Lowell 3, Fall River 2.

Hits—Lowell 9, Fall River 6.

Errors—Lowell 3, Fall River 1.

At the request of the injured persons the hospital authorities refused to give any information regarding the identity of the victims or the nature of their injuries. It is known, however, that two of the women are in a critical condition. All of the victims of the accident were delegates to the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs at Boston and had come here on an excursion.

CASWELL OPTICAL COMPANY

11 Bridge St., Merrimack square, Boston.

One of the most daring train robberies ever perpetrated in the vicinity of Lowell took place this morning between three and four o'clock when a party of robbers, evidently Yeggmen, disabled a southbound freight train in Tyngsboro, and while the train hands were busily engaged in making the necessary repairs the robbers broke into sixteen of the cars and managed to secure a quantity of cigars, liquor, shoes and other miscellaneous articles.

That the work must have been done by a well organized gang of robbers was evident from the daring manner they took to bring the train to a stop in one of the most secluded spots between Concord and Boston. Then again the work of breaking into and pilfering the contents of the cars was done with a number of trainmen within a very short distance of the cars which were broken into, demonstrates the daring methods adopted.

Whether or not the men had a wagon in waiting and carried off the goods in that manner, or whether they carried away part in their arms and hid the rest of the booty, is not known. The work must have been carefully planned beforehand and has every appearance of having been done by men skilled in such business. The police in Massachusetts and New Hampshire have been notified of the break.

The train in question is one of the regular freights which is made up in Concord, N. H., and goes through to Boston.

It being one of the biggest freights between the northern and southern points of this division of the railroad.

When the train reached a point near the camp of the Martin Luthers in Tyngsboro it came to a sudden stop. The engineer closed the throttle and applied the brakes and the engineer, fireman and train hands with lanterns alighted and started looking for the trouble.

After some little time it was found that one of the rubber and wire connections for connection between cars had been cut, and caused the train to come to such a sudden stop.

A new piece of pipe was secured and the connection made, but the train was delayed for some little time and it was during this delay that the robbers broke the seals on the car doors, pried the doors open with jimmies, and performed their work.

The break had not been discovered until a few minutes before the train was ready to start, and at that time there was no sign of the Yeggmen.

Where the men boarded the train is not known, but it must have been in the yards at Nashua Junction or at some point farther north. One or more of the men must have been riding the bumpers and when the train reached the secluded spot the rubber pipe was cut with a sharp knife. In all probability the robbers then made for cover in the woods until the attention of the train hands had been attracted to the place where the job had been done and then while the railroad men were making repairs the robbers went to another portion of the train and broke into the cars.

The club have a park in Lowell. All that is necessary is to have the gas company furnish on short notice forty to eighty thousand cubic feet of gas and 50 to 100 pounds of sand and a spare near the gasometer for the ascension park. If you will make an appointment some time when in Boston, will be pleased to talk it over.

They furnish fuel to fill the balloons, sand, etc. at Bradford and No. Adams, and charge us ninety cents per one thousand for the gas. Delivering gas at that price at the gasometer, is profitable and saves loss by distribution, etc. The quality is very essential and should test out 30 that will fill about forty-five pounds to the one thousand cubic feet.

Here is a chance to bring Lowell to the front in this great movement of aeronautics. The press can help the movement along. Lowell leads with its automobile matters.

SPECIAL SESSION

Of Superior Court at Gorham St.

A special session of the superior court for the purpose of hearing motions was held at the local court house in Gorham street, this morning, Judge King presiding.

Messrs. John J. O'Connor, John I. Hogan and William H. Bent argued for a new trial in the cases of Janquira, Perron, Gargan and Cayer, against Joseph J. Albott. These cases arose out of the accident at the Shedd building in Church street this spring when two of the above mentioned men were killed.

When the case was heard before the superior court verdicts for the defense were rendered. Mr. O'Connor appeared for Janquira, Mr. Hogan for Perron and Gargan and Mr. Bent for Cayer. Judge King took the matter under advisement.

In the case of Prince against the Lowell Electric Light corporation, in which the jury returned a verdict of $2000 for the plaintiff, Lawyer E. W. Qua, representing the defense, argued to have the verdict set aside and have a new trial.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Grover Cleveland, contrary to general belief, died a poor man, relatively speaking. The opinion was generally held that he possessed a considerable estate and that his family would be well provided for. Inquiry has developed the fact, however, that he has left his widow and four children practically nothing except the house at Princeton and the places at Buzzards Bay and Tamworth, N. H.

When Mr. Cleveland left the White House after his second term, it is said, he and his wife had an income between them of $10,000 a year. When he saw his children growing up and realized he was getting to be an old man his income often worried him because of the future of the young wife and children. He would accept nothing from friends, they say, though they were ready and willing to add him in any way. He was extremely proud on this score, but he could not conceal the fact that he was not at ease.

It is said now he did not live in New York for the sole reason that it was cheaper to live in Princeton, and in Princeton he could maintain the style he felt would be demanded of him. His income was added to by $5000 a year when he became one of the trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Then when he was made head of the association of life insurance presidents, at a salary of $25,000, his friends who knew of his financial limitations rejoiced. However, he had held that place only a year.

Mr. Cleveland had some money on deposit in the Knickerbocker Trust company, a fact which came out at the time the company closed its doors. An intimate friend who is familiar with Mr. Cleveland's financial affairs said yesterday that he may have had some money in addition to this deposit, but it was a trifling amount.

Mr. Cleveland was a great believer in life insurance, but for the past 15 years he had been in bad health. If he held any insurance that will go to his wife and children. It is believed to have been taken out before he entered the White House for his second term as president.

CRUISER SALEM

MADE AN AVERAGE SPEED OF 25.96 KNOTS.

BOSTON, June 26.—In her four hours' endurance run yesterday, the new scout cruiser Salem, built by the Fore River company, made an average speed of 25.96 knots. The Salem started from a point off Monhegan at 11 a. m., and dropped anchor in Nantasket Roads at 8 o'clock last night. During the second and third hours the average speed was 26.01, but at the beginning of the fourth hour one of the fire rooms became disabled, and the speed of the ship fell off to a trifle under 25 knots. The ship behaved well. The engines worked smoothly and no vibration was noticeable.

The cruiser easily surpassed the government requirement of 24 knots with 348 revolutions of the screw per minute, attaining a speed of 26.915 knots and it was found to secure 24 knots an hour that but 352 revolutions were necessary.

The cruiser took on coal and water last night and will sail at 8.30 in the morning on her 24-hour 12-knot endurance run. The following day she will be speeded at 22 knots an hour for 24 hours.

Five Airships to Contest for Glidden Trophy

NORTH ADAMS, June 26.—Before Charles J. Glidden, the world tourist, had started in his balloon Boston from this city yesterday morning, it was announced that there would be a five-balloon race from this city August 14.

A. Holland Forbes of New York who was Mr. Glidden's companion and critic in yesterday's flight, set the date for the race because he is the giver of the cup. Two months ago he presented the cup to the North Adams aero club for the race, he being a member of the club.

The conditions are that each contestant shall pick out on the morning of the race the town post office to which he thinks he can sail nearest; the contestant making the best sail to his place of destination to be declared the winner of the cup. The post office picked out must be at least 40 miles away, and the balloon to win must be at least within 10 miles of the post office chosen.

Mr. Glidden entered the Boston this morning for the race. Mr. Forbes has entered his Conqueror, the largest balloon in America; the Sky Pilot will be entered by Messrs. Morgan and Wade of Cleveland, and North Adams, No. 1 and the Greylock of this city will be in the race.

This will be the biggest balloon event in the United States with the exception of the St. Louis races.

LANDED IN WILBRAHAM.

WILBRAHAM, June 26.—The second voyage of the balloon "Boston" and the 10th of Charles J. Glidden, that will qualify him as pilot No. 12 of the Aero club of New England, was successfully made yesterday from North Adams at 9.25 a. m., on an easy landing being made on the farm of Charles Mowry at Wilbraham Centre, two miles from North Wilbraham station. Mr. Glidden was accompanied by A. Holland Forbes of New York, who was making his 15th ascension. At the start the balloon carried 500 pounds of ballast. After hovering over the city a few minutes at an elevation of 1900 feet, the Hancock mountain was crossed at the westerly door of the tunnel, where the cool air sent the balloon down at the expense of considerable sand. At an elevation of 4000 feet, variable winds caused the balloon basket to rock not unlike a small boat in a swell, a new experience to both aeronauts.

The voyage could well be called "an aerial sail among the colleges," for at one time Wilbraham academy, Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Amherst and the Massachusetts agricultural college were visible. The highest elevation reached was 7400 feet. At 11.11 o'clock the Tip Top house of Mt. Holyoke was directly under the basket 640 feet below. To the right was Mt. Tom, the city of Springfield covering about as much space as Boston common.

Mrs. Holyoke and Tom appeared like huge "A" tents with a heavy green covering. The sun and clouds caused much up and down movements and ascensions three hours before dark are the most desirable. A cool breeze off Mt. Holyoke caused a drop of 2500 feet and made a landing necessary on account of loss of sand in a 30-mile wind.

SHOT HERSELF

WOMAN HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH.

HEBRON, N. H., June 26.—Miss Hattie Kimball, aged 48 years, committed suicide last night by shooting herself through the head with a rifle. She had been in poor health for some time and was believed to have become despondent. With a sister, Miss Ellen Kimball, she had begun the erection of a boarding house to accommodate the summer visitors.

Grover Fels Mentioned for the Place

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 26.—The next captain of the Yale baseball team will undoubtedly be Grover Cleveland Fels of Lowell, Mass.

Fels is a member of the junior class in the Sheffield Scientific school, and is shortstop on the varsity team.

Last year he played shortstop on the freshman team, and before that played the same position at Andover.

He is a member of the Sheffield society, "Book and Snake," and plays right wing on the Yale hockey team.

There is no academic man who will be a senior next year who is eligible for captain except Van Vleck, and there is feeling against electing a pitcher.

Wheaton, who was considered a possibility for a time, is out of the race, and will vote for Fels.

The election will be held in New York following next Saturday's game with Harvard.

ON THE CREASE.

The Maynard cricket club will be the guests of the Buntings at Bunting park tomorrow afternoon. The result of the last encounter between these two teams was favorable to the Buntings, so it is fair to assume that the Maynards entertain very great hopes of turning the tables on their opponents and go home with a victory at the close of the contest. Buntings will be represented as follows: Hugh Rudden, captain; James Patrick, vice captain; Herbert Rowley, Walter Tuttle, James West, William Scholes, George Bailey, Thomas Stockton, Joseph McCormick, Byron Thornton and James W. H. Walton.

Reserves, Sam Burt and J. Smart; umpire, J. Barton Allen; scorer, John Moss.

THE STORE FOR A BIG DOLLAR'S WORTH

6 O'CLOCK PUBLIC HEARING

The Trades and Labor council have asked for a public hearing on what the council alleges to be a violation of the eight-hour law, having in mind the sewer bosses who are working twelve hours a day. Action in the matter was taken at the last meeting of the council and the following letter, which is self-explanatory, has been addressed to the mayor:

Lowell, Mass., June 22, 1908.
Hon. F. W. Farnham, Mayor, City of Lowell.

Dear Sir:—

By a vote of our council at its meeting June 21, 1908, I was instructed to write you and request that you set a date for a public hearing on the violation of the eight-hour law.

A committee consisting of one delegate from each craft affiliated with our council was appointed to attend the hearing and we wish the board of aldermen, common councilmen, heads of departments and City Solicitor Hill be requested to attend the hearing and have the matter discussed that a fair understanding may be had by all.

Trusting that you will arrange for an early hearing, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

A. W. Horsene, Secretary Pro Tem.

Mayor Farnham will arrange for the hearing to be held next Wednesday evening, and the city messenger has been instructed to send out the necessary notices.

Supt. Morse of the street and sewer departments has already expressed himself on the matter. He has only four or five sewer bosses and between 500 and 600 men to be bossed. The men are working six hour shifts, and in order to keep them at work Mr. Morse says it is necessary for the bosses to work twelve hours.

"I can make it a four-hour shift," said Mr. Morse and use about half the number of men. My bosses, however, are willing and anxious to work twelve hours a day in order that the other five or six hundred men may get their bread and butter out of it.

City Solicitor Hill allows that any law which would prevent or interfere with a man working more than eight hours a day, providing he wanted to work more than eight hours, would be unconstitutional on the very face of it, and he has already given an opinion to that effect.

THE OFFICERS

ELECTED BY COURT GENERAL
SHIELDS, F. OF A.

Court General Shields, F. of A., met in regular session last evening at Foresters' hall, Chief Ranger Patrick Carthy presiding. The meeting was largely attended, the occasion being the semi-annual election of officers, which resulted in the choice of the following: Chief ranger, Patrick Carthy; sub-chief ranger, Edward McAvoy; recording secretary, William G. Jones; senior woodward, Patrick Roark; junior woodward, John Daly; senior beadle, James Boland; junior beadle, James E. Lang; lecturer, Thomas A. Green. The installation of officers will take place at the next regular meeting, July 21st. Matters pertaining to the good and welfare of the court were discussed by Brothers Keegan, Moss, McDougall and Hallisey.

TO EUROPE

The following well known Lowell people embark for Europe on July 4 and as they are all going on the same boat they should not be lonesome: Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Collins, Wm. L. Gookin, Chas. H. Molloy and Miss Frances Molloy, Miss Yvonne Lemaitre and John Salmon and father.

ISAAC E. WOTTON BILLERICA CASE

Will be Sentenced Next Week

Isaac E. Wotton appeared in the superior criminal court at East Cambridge yesterday afternoon and was arraigned before Judge Aiken at 4.15 o'clock, having been summoned by the district attorney's office to appear on the complaint charging him with having accepted a bribe.

Mr. Wotton was convicted at the last session at the superior criminal court before Judge Bell. The defense took exceptions to the verdict of the jury and the case went to the supreme court. The supreme court has not yet ruled on those exceptions, but District Attorney Higgins wanted sentence imposed on Mr. Wotton at this session of the court regardless of whether or not the report was received from the supreme court.

George R. Swasey of Boston, Wotton's counsel, said he had not received notice until last evening that his client was to be sentenced today and he asked that the imposition of sentence be delayed so that Mr. Wotton might have a chance to arrange his business.

Judge Aiken said: "I intended to adjourn this court tomorrow but will keep open one week longer and I will see Judge Bell, Saturday, and tell him I have kept the court open one week longer because the district attorney wants to have sentence pronounced on Wotton at this time."

Wotton will be sentenced next week by Judge Bell.

DEATHS

CANDEE—Mrs. Hannah Hunt Candee, widow of the late Gideon H. Candee, died yesterday at her residence, 241 Clark road, after a lingering illness. Deceased was an old resident of Lowell, having lived here all of her life. Mrs. Candee was active in literary work, having written considerable during her lifetime. She was a member of the High Street Congregational church for many years and was a charter member of the Middlesex Women's Club. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Marjorie Healey of this city and Mrs. Ellen H. Healey of Washington, and a brother, Timothy Hunt of Chicago. The following lines were written by Mrs. Candee on the occasion of the death of her friend, Miss Carrie Garland Cooper:

AN IMMORTAL

"And they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy."
Once more celestial asphodels, their greetings wave.
Once more a pilgrim's weary feet Heaven's waters lave.

One more glad soul set free,
To wing its flight.
From out its prison house of clay To realms of light.

Where that far clime may be,
We do not know
Beyond the shining of the sun,
Or gleam of snow.

Some where in God's wide world there stands
The great white throne—
The blessed home of peace, and love
Now claims its own.

ROMANCE OF LOVE BIG IMPROVEMENT BAPTIST PICNIC

Revealed by Death of a Millionaire

In Business Expected by Morgan

Grand Outing at Canobie Lake

PARIS, June 25.—The death here of Benjamin Hart, a millionaire American who has resided in Paris almost continuously for the past twenty-five years, has uncovered a romance which promises to have a court sequel in a suit brought by the adopted daughter whom Mr. Hart disinherited in his will.

Hart was a Virginian by birth, but he was well known in New York, where he lived for many years and where he amassed a large fortune during the Civil war. He was married while he lived in America, but later was divorced. As there were no children to the union, Mr. Hart, during one of his visits to Paris, became interested in a pretty three-year-old child, Isabel Lucchesi, and arranged with the parents to adopt her as his own daughter.

The little girl was tenderly reared by Hart after the divorce from his wife and every care was bestowed upon her education and training. In 1892, when Isabel was 17 years of age, Hart formally adopted her in New York. The adopted daughter about this time contracted a brilliant marriage with a distinguished young French diplomat, Jean Guillemin, who is well known in America, where he was dispatched by M. Delcasse upon two missions.

Soon after this Hart formed a romance with a Madame de Bie, and installed her as the mistress of his splendid Paris home. It is charged that Madame de Bie conceived a violent hatred for the daughter because the latter refused to recognize her.

At any rate, when Mr. Hart died it was found that he had left a will specifically disinheriting the adopted daughter and bequeathing all his property, which amounts to several millions of dollars, to Madame de Bie. Guillemin has instructed the lawyer, Donald Harper, to bring suit to break the will on the ground of undue influence. The document will also be contested, as it was drafted in accordance with the New York law, whereas it is claimed Hart was domiciled in France. Mr. Hart's will will come up for probate before the surrogate of New York on July 30.

LAWN PARTY

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

A very successful lawn party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Martha White, 1255 Middlesex St., the affair being under the auspices of Elrene lodge of Good Templars.

The grounds were prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and the evening was spent in music, singing and games. That the affair was financially successful, as well as enjoyable, is shown by the fact that nearly $55 was realized for the benefit fund. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ida Dillon, Mrs. Annie Corbett, Mrs. E. A. Christian, Miss Nyma White, Will Smith and George Tilton, Jr.

The White Store

114---Merrimack Street---116

NEW YORK, June 25.—Dr. J. Pierpont Morgan carried his new honors lightly when he boarded the steamship Providence of the French line, and sailed yesterday for Havre. The famous financier was in a singularly sprightly mood for him, and turned a sunny smile on the reporters that almost struck them dumb with amazement.

"When you came in on the Mauretania last week Dr. Morgan," ventured one reporter, "you promised to give us some sort of an interview."

"Ah! ah!" laughed the banker, "so you call me Dr. Morgan now. That sounds funny, doesn't it? But I am a doctor of laws, it seems, so not a real doctor. I suppose, since they made me a lawyer, I won't be long before they put me in the Ananias club. That seems to be the place where all lawyers get to."

Asked if he had any statement to make regarding the death of ex-President Cleveland, the banker turned very serious and said:

"Not at all. Don't ask me to speak off-hand on such a subject as that. Mr. Cleveland's death was a great shock to me, as it was to the nation. Please do not ask me to speak about it."

"Have you anything to say on the financial and business outlook?" was asked.

"I expect a very decided improvement. You can say that I am very optimistic," Mr. Morgan said that he expected to return in August. He will spend July in London, and expects to get a good rest.

The Baptists and Free Baptist churches of this city held their annual picnic at Canobie Lake park, yesterday. There was a large attendance and the day was all that could be desired. First Baptist, Branch Street Baptist, Fifth Street Baptist, Paige Street Free Baptist, Chelmsford Street Free Baptist, Mt. Vernon Free Baptist and the Hadley Street Free Baptist.

A greater portion of the day was taken up by an athletic meet for the Sunday school championship and the contest was an interesting one. Each church had its representatives and points were scored as follows:

First Baptist church, 25 points; Fifth street, 11; Worthen street, 10; Mt. Vernon, 9; Branch street, 7, and Chelmsford street, 1.

The events were won as follows:

100-yard dash for boys: First Coupe, First Baptist; second, Stites, Fifth St.; third, Crossland, First Baptist.

100-yard dash for girls: First, Myrtle Taylor, First Baptist; second, Mildred Isherwood, Fifth Street; third, Flora Clark, First Baptist.

Three-legged race: First Parkinson and Semple, First Baptist; second, Cory and Legatt, Worthen Street; third, Field and Goldthwaite, Worthen street.

FROM COMPANY M SOMERVILLE BOY

The Boys Are Having An Enjoyable Time

CAPT. McNULTY AND HIS MEN

Lieuts. O'Donnell and McArdle Quite Busy

The following letter is from one of the members of Company M, now in camp at Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, Boston harbor.

Fort Andrews, Peddocks Island, June 26th.

The second battalion of the 5th regiment stationed at Fort Andrews, is pleasantly situated on a sandy plain close to the shore and while the beach itself isn't of a sandy nature this doesn't prevent the boys from bathing every day in the bay. The camp is a thoroughly up-to-date one, in every respect, having shower baths. The company streets are well lighted by electricity, and the best of sanitary arrangements prevail. Dr. P. F. Butler who is on duty with the battalion is very attentive to his work, keeping a careful watch on the company cooks and the cleanliness of their kitchens and ice chests. Captain Philip McNulty was officer of the day, on Tuesday, Lieut. Bernard F. McArdle was commander of the guard on Thursday, while Lieut. Thomas J. O'Donnell has been detailed to act as quartermaster. Lieut. O'Donnell had rather a strenuous time of it the first three days, getting the camp into shape as there was much packing to be done and looking up of baggage that had gone astray, as well as "ending tentage" to the other battalions stationed at different posts.

Captain Nesbit and Lieutenant Frank- enburgher, instructors at West Point are the officers detailed to act in the same capacity at this post, and as they spend all their time with the boys there will be a great improvement by the end of the week.

Schools are held daily for both officers and men and matters that are talked over at these sessions are put into practice the next day. It is expected that an armed party will attempt to make a landing sometime during the week, consequently the troops are carefully looking over the island in order that they may be familiar with the territory and at what points to dig their trenches so that they may command a full view of the coast.

While all are impressed with the seriousness of camp life still they don't forget to participate in the social side, of which there is a great deal in the Company M street.

Sergeant Ed. Worthen is the commander of the scouting parties and he has been very successful in the performance of his duty. Monday night he gallantly led his scouts, who were heavily armed with lighted candles, along the shore seeking for spies and one of the rookie scouts stumbled over a desperate spy who was trying to conceal himself in the sand. He was immediately tried and sentenced to be shot. The shooting was postponed until the last night in camp.

It is rumored about the camp that the sergeant will charge up the hill tonight at eleven o'clock and attempt to remove the military crest. Whether he will be successful in this daring and almost hopeless attack, is the subject of a great deal of questioning among the rookies. The boys are in good health and are enjoying life, having the privilege of going to Nantasket after work is over, providing they have conducted themselves properly during the day. Visitors are few and far between as yet, but it is expected there will be many during the latter part of the week.

Anyone desiring to visit the camp may do so. Peddocks Island is reached by the Nantasket boat which stops at Pemberton and a ferry from the island will take the visitors to the camp field from Pemberton. Lowell papers are very scarce and the boys, I know, would greatly appreciate reading The Sun.

SECRETARY TAFT
DID NOT LEAVE NEW HAVEN WITH HIS WIFE.

NEW HAVEN, June 26.—Secretary Taft after four days of work and festivities to the commencement exercises at Yale today concludes his sojourn at New Haven. Mrs. Taft and Master Charles left here at 9.35 a. m. for New York.

At the last moment Secretary Taft who had planned to go with them decided not to go to New York until some time this afternoon. Mrs. Taft and her son will go directly to Washington where she will begin preparations for breaking up their home in the national capital. The family will spend practically the entire summer at Hot Springs, Va., only one or two short trips from there to other points being in contemplation.

In explanation of his sudden change of plans Secretary Taft said that some conferences which he was to have had today in New York had to be abandoned on account of the funeral this afternoon of the late President Cleveland.

"I have a considerable amount of correspondence which has been neglected for three or four days," said he, "and I am going to get it out of the way today. Here I can attend to it quite whereas if I went to New York this morning I probably would be unable to do anything with it this afternoon."

DID NOT LEAVE NEW HAVEN WITH HIS WIFE.

NEW HAVEN, June 26.—Secretary Taft after four days of work and festivities to the commencement exercises at Yale today concludes his sojourn at New Haven. Mrs. Taft and Master Charles left here at 9.35 a. m. for New York.

At the last moment Secretary Taft who had planned to go with them decided not to go to New York until some time this afternoon. Mrs. Taft and her son will go directly to Washington where she will begin preparations for breaking up their home in the national capital. The family will spend practically the entire summer at Hot Springs, Va., only one or two short trips from there to other points being in contemplation.

In explanation of his sudden change of plans Secretary Taft said that some conferences which he was to have had today in New York had to be abandoned on account of the funeral this afternoon of the late President Cleveland.

"I have a considerable amount of correspondence which has been neglected for three or four days," said he, "and I am going to get it out of the way today. Here I can attend to it quite whereas if I went to New York this morning I probably would be unable to do anything with it this afternoon."

CANAL WALL BULGING.
The wall of the canal at the corner of Hanover and Merrimack streets seems to be bulging out so as to fall into the canal if not speedily repaired. This will probably be a Sunday job for the Locks and Canals men.

YOUNG TEDDY AND THE TRUSTS

IT SEEMS RATHER STRANGE THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WHO IS SO MUCH OPPOSED TO THE MAMMOTH TRUSTS, SHOULD SEND HIS SON TO LEARN THE STEEL BUSINESS WITH THE GREATEST AND PROBABLY THE WORST TRUST IN THE COUNTRY. IT MIGHT BE SUPPOSED THAT HE WOULD BE AFRAID THAT THE TRUST WOULD WEAN THE BOY AWAY FROM HIS FATHER'S PRINCIPLES OR THAT ON THE OTHER HAND THE TRUST MIGHT REGARD HIM AS DANGEROUS. IF YOUNG TEDDY SHOWS MUCH OF THE GRIT AND THE AGGRESSIVENESS OF HIS FATHER, IT WILL NOT TAKE HIM LONG TO MASTER THE STEEL BUSINESS AND EVENTUALLY TO RISE TO A PROMINENT POSITION IN THE TRUST. NO DOUBT THE FACT THAT HE IS THE SON OF THE PRESIDENT WILL GIVE HIM GREAT ADVANTAGES OVER OTHER BOYS IN RISING FROM THE BOTTOM OF THE LADDER TO THE TOP. BUT HAVING ONCE REACHED THE TOPMOST ROUNDER WILL YOUNG ROOSEVELT REFORM THE TRUST OR WILL HE EMULATE THE CROESUS LIKE WEALTH OF CARNEGIE AND CARNEGIE'S METHODS OF SPENDING MONEY WRUNG FROM THE PEOPLE BY TRUST EXTORTIONS?

SHELTERS IN PUBLIC PARKS

OUR PUBLIC PARKS ARE VERY DEFICIENT IN SHELTERS UNDER WHICH THE PEOPLE MIGHT TAKE REFUGE DURING A SHOWER OR ON A VERY HOT DAY.

THE PARK DEPARTMENT HAS PROVIDED SOME APPARATUS ON THE COMMON FOR THE USE OF CHILDREN, AMONG THESE BEING SAND BOXES AND METALLIC SLIDES.

IT MUST BE OBVIOUS TO EVERYBODY THAT LITTLE CHILDREN CANNOT SAFELY BE ALLOWED TO PLAY IN THESE SAND BOXES UNDER THE GLARE OF THE SUN ON A HOT DAY SUCH EXPOSURE TO THE SUN WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY BE TOO MUCH FOR THEM TO ENDURE WITHOUT INJURY; AND FOR THIS REASON THE SAND BOXES UNLESS ROOFED OVER ARE NOT WITHOUT DANGER TO SMALL CHILDREN. AS TO THE METALLIC SLIDES THEY BECOME SO HEATED UNDER CONTINUOUS EXPOSURE TO THE SUN ON A HOT DAY, THAT CHILDREN HAVE BEEN BURNED BY ATTEMPTING TO SLIDE ON THEM DURING THE HEAT OF THE DAY. IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT THE PARK DEPARTMENT WILL PROVIDE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE PROPER SHELTERS FOR THE PEOPLE AND SUITABLE PROTECTION FOR THE SLIDES, THE SAND BOXES AND THE OTHER APPARATUS SO THAT ALL MAY BE ENJOYED EVEN IN HOT WEATHER WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS DANGER.

ENCOURAGING BUSINESS OUTLOOK

IT WOULD SEEM TO BE AN UTTER IMPOSSIBILITY TO MAINTAIN A BUSINESS DEPRESSION EVEN FOR THE NEXT SIX MONTHS, IN VIEW OF THE GRAND PROSPECTS OF ABUNDANT HARVESTS, THE GREAT HAY AND GRAIN CROPS AND THE APPARENT REVIVAL IN RAILROADING AND MANUFACTURING.

THE CENSUS OF FREIGHT CARS NOW IN USE IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA SHOWS A REDUCTION OF ABOUT THIRTY THOUSAND IN THE NUMBER OF IDLE CARS SINCE LAST MONTH. THIS INDICATES A GREAT INCREASE IN TRANSPORTATION WHICH MUST BE DUE OF COURSE TO A CORRESPONDING INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTS OF INDUSTRY.

THE MOST FAVORABLE REPORTS SEEM TO COME FROM THE EASTERN, MIDDLE AND NORTH ATLANTIC STATES WHERE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES ARE NUMEROUS. SOME MAY NOT SHOW COMPLETE RECOVERY FOR A COUPLE OF MONTHS, JULY AND AUGUST ARE USUALLY DULL MONTHS ANYHOW, AND THIS YEAR MAY BE NO EXCEPTION. BUT FROM THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER A STEADY IMPROVEMENT IS LOOKED FOR AN IMPROVEMENT TOO THAT WILL SOON REACH THE NORMAL CONDITIONS OF PROSPERITY THAT PREVAILED TWO YEARS AGO.

HIGHER TAX RATE

THE CITY OF BOSTON IS ALARMED AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE TAX RATE FOR THIS YEAR WILL REACH THE UNPRECEDENTED FIGURE OF $1.50 PER $1000. THE CITY OF LOWELL WOULD DECLARE ONE OF THE GRANDEST CELEBRATIONS IN ITS HISTORY IF IT WERE ASSURED OF A REDUCTION IN THE TAX RATE TO $1.

SUED FOR DIVORCE

THERE SURELY MUST BE SOMETHING WRONG HERE.

NEWARK, N. J., June 26.—Vice-Chancellor Emery, of Newark, is trying to unravel a strange story that was told in his courtroom at the trial of a divorce suit. The action was brought by John H. Crane, of Dover, against Minnie E. Crane. He asks for a divorce on the ground of desertion, but the defendant is contesting it on the ground that she is not and never was his wife. The couple have an eleven-year-old son.

John Crane asserts that one May day in 1897 he took the defendant out for a carriage ride from her home near New Brunswick, N. J., and drove to the latter place, where they were married by the Rev. W. E. Irving. He exhibited a marriage certificate ostensibly signed by the minister named. Old residents of the town declare that there was never a minister of that name in the place.

The defendant, who says her name is Minnie E. Smith, denies the story told by the petitioner. She admits taking the carriage ride, but asserts it was on Thanksgiving day in 1895 and not in the May following. She declares that he was seventeen and she sixteen at the time. While on the ride they stopped at the home of a minister to get married, but he was not at home. They then drove to the parsonage of a church in a neighboring town, only to find that minister also absent. Then they returned and declared they had been married, having agreed to have the ceremony performed later.

But, according to the woman the ceremony has never been performed. When she wanted to get married, she says, Crane was not ready, and when he finally made up his mind to take her as his legal wife she concluded not to have him. Through her counsel, she presented the records of the bureau of vital statistics at Trenton, showing that there is no record in the state of the alleged marriage.

It was intimated by Crane's counsel when he found that there was no record of the marriage and that the certificate was probably bogus that at least a common law marriage existed, but the court held that the petitioner had produced a certificate, and the question of a common law marriage could not be injected into the case at this time.

BELLS TO TOLL

MAYOR McCLELLAN MAKES REQUEST TO PASTORS.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Mayor McClellan, in an announcement yesterday, requested the ministers of all churches in New York City to have the bells in their churches toll from 5 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, during the funeral services at Princeton. The board of governors of the Consolidated stock exchange decided to suspend the business of exchange at one o'clock as a token of respect for Mr. Cleveland. With the simultaneous closing of the New York stock exchange and the consolidated exchange, business in the financial district will be practically at a standstill. The banks, however, will remain open as usual.

THE C. Y. M. L.

CONTINUES TO ADD TO ITS MEMBERSHIP.

The regular weekly meeting of the Catholic Young Men's Lyceum was held last night. President Andrew Smith, presided and the report of the last meeting was read by the secretary and accepted.

The membership of both the Lyceum and the gymnasium continues to grow. There were four propositions for membership received and three candidates were admitted.

The committee on athletics reported that the Lyceum would be represented at Washington park on July 14, by a competent squad of athletes. The Lyceum will have as its delegate for the benefit to be held on July 14, President Smith.

The Country club composed of members of the Lyceum has now a membership of over 200, at its recreation grounds.

The return debate to be held with the Y. M. C. A. of Lawrence will take place in the near future.

The election of the officers for the ensuing six months will be held on Thursday evening, July 2. The election will be followed by a smoke talk, the entertainment committee will present a musical program.

There are about twenty-five candidates for the chair and some lively battles will ensue.

A new committee was appointed by the president last evening to procure material for the establishing of a large debating society. The Lyceum has some fluent talkers and they have taken kindly to the formation of a permanent debating club.

The gymnasium committee has secured the services of Frank Davey, the local wrestler, for the coming winter. Mr. Davey will form classes of members who desire to learn the game.

The track team is putting in daily practice on the boulevard. A cross country run will be participated in by the members in a short time.

LARGE MEETING

The regular meeting of Division 28, A. O. H., was held last night, there being a large attendance of members.

President Cotter called to order shortly after eight o'clock and considerable business of importance was transacted during the evening. At the conclusion of the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Songs were provided by Patrick Casey, Owen Healey, William Kennedy and Daniel Rourke, while John Carr entertained with recitations, and William Flynn gave a good exhibition of clog dancing.

TWO ARRESTED

Charged With Assault-
ing Chas. J. Glidden

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., June 26.—Charged with assaulting Charles J. Glidden, the well known automobile and balloon enthusiast with a rifle with intent to kill, while Mr. Glidden was travelling over Brattleboro in a balloon with Leo Stevens last Friday, William Murphy, aged 30, and Charles Rigan, aged 33 years, of this city, were placed under arrest last night by Deputy Myron P. Davis.

According to Mr. Glidden, two bullets were fired at the balloon, apparently from a white barn many hundreds of feet below. One bullet grazed the balloon leaving a scar. The second bullet passed completely through the balloon and it became necessary for the balloonists to descend. Owing to the small diameter of the hole the gas in the balloon did not escape rapidly enough to endanger the lives of the occupants by the descent.

PASTOR RUSSELL

IS DISTINGUISHED AUTHOR AS WELL AS PREACHER.

Pastor Charles T. Russell of Pittsburgh, Pa., who will speak in Associate hall,

Sunday afternoon, is an eminent Bible scholar with an international reputation in religious circles as author, editor and lecturer. His best-known book is "The Divine Plan of the Ages," which is said to have a larger circulation than any other religious book in the world outside of the Bible, considerably more than 2,000,000 copies having been sold. Others of Pastor Russell's works are "The Time is at Hand," "Thy Kingdom Come," "The Day of Vengeance," "The At-one-ment," and "The New Creation." These volumes have been grouped under the serial title of "Studies in the Scriptures," and are issued in English, German, French, Swedish, Danish-Norwegian, Italian and Greek, while editions in the Dutch and Chinese languages are now being prepared. He is also the author of "Tabernacle Shadows of Better Sacrifices," "What Say the Scriptures About Hell?" and many smaller booklets and tracts.

THEATRE VOYONS

A bright, snappy comedy, a most pleasing, sentimental story and a dramatic subject full of life all go toward making the picture part of the Theatre Voyons program of unusual excellence. "The Fighting Parson" is a very good dramatic subject, telling of the kidnapping, for revenge, of two little children. The search made for them and their final rescue by the fighting parson. He is a mighty clever man with his fists and one who is not afraid to take a chance when duty calls. "The Persevering Lovers" is a somewhat different picture, telling of the trials of a couple of young people whose parents object to their being wed. The songs are very good, well sung and selected for just this kind of weather. The Victor recitals between shows are proving a big hit as they present selections not only from grand opera by the world's greatest singers but other musical selections of great merit.

IN CENTRALVILLE

Big Parade on the "Night Before"

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Centralville "Night Before the Fourth" committee was held at headquarters, 334 Bridge street, last night, and the arrangements are now practically completed for the monster celebration to be held on week from tonight.

The sub-committees on music, features, etc., submitted very encouraging reports, and it was decided to offer prizes as follows:

For slam-bang features, first prize, $100; second prize, $75; third prize, $25; team prizes, first, $15; second, $10; individual slam-bang, first, $30; second, $5. For military features, $100 was set aside to be proportioned according to the number of men in line of each company.

The route of parade was discussed at some length, but it was decided to make a final decision relative to the route of march next Sunday afternoon when all arrangements will be completed. At that meeting also the chief marshal will submit a list of aids and also announce the division marshals.

A NOVEL SCHEME

To Make Liquor Drinkers Wear Badges

NEW YORK, June 26.—That buyers of alcoholic beverages as well as sellers of them be compelled to take out licenses is the proposition which George De Cuhna, an architect with offices in New York, has embodied in an ordinance which he has presented for adoption in his home town of Montclair, N. J., near here. Under the proposed ordinance every purchaser of a drink must be supplied with a license and a metal badge. Should a liquor dealer sell to a man not thus tagged he would be rendered liable to prosecution with the revocation of the selling license as a penalty.

"Will Secretary Taft take a rest and a course of training under your direction?" Mr. Muldoon was asked. "I don't know now," he said, "It will be decided at Saturday" after the meeting at Oyster Bay."

The "pop" concert and ladies' night of the Washington club was held last evening with a large and merry attendance. The night was ideal and those who had the good fortune to be present enjoyed a delightful evening. The American band furnished a most acceptable program.

BOSTON, June 26.—Lillian G. Roy (Glacia Calla), who came into prominence last winter, when she made accusations against her husband, Paul

G. Roy, charging him with killing her brother, George A. Carkins, was yesterday granted a temporary injunction by Judge DeCourcy in the superior court restraining Edward E. Bennett of Fitchburg from selling or disposing of her ticket pledging a pearl necklace with a diamond clasp and a diamond and pearl bracelet to a company as security for loans to her amounting to $2200.

Lillian G. Roy's address was given as Boston. The tickets were originally issued under the name of Gladys Hodgdon. J. A. Farver of the Pemberton building was the attorney in the case.

AT PORTSMOUTH

The Merrimack Valley
Boards of TradeWILL HOLD THEIR
OUTINGOfficials Not With Local
Board Yesterday

The presidents and secretaries of the Merrimack Valley boards of trade met at the rooms of the local board yesterday afternoon. Dr. M. P. Sullivan, president of the Lawrence board, called to order at 2 p. m. The boards of trade of the cities of the valley were represented by Pres. Dr. M. E. Sullivan and Secretary Chas. H. Littlefield of Lawrence; President J. N. Bachelder and Secretary A. M. Child of Haverhill; President Harry A. Smith and Secretary McKenna of Lowell; and Secretary J. H. Dunlap of Manchester, while the New Hampshire state board was represented by Mr. M. T. Metcalf of Concord. Dr. Sullivan was elected chairman of the meeting and Mr. McKenna was chosen secretary.

The question of an outing was the first matter of discussion, and while all favored the proposition the Massachusetts men did not care to assume the responsibility. Finally Mr. Dunlap kindly invited the Massachusetts cities to join with the New Hampshire state board of trade in their outing in Portsmouth, early in September, when the battleship New Hampshire will be visited. The invitation was gladly accepted.

President Smith of the local board introduced the project of making the Merrimack river navigable and told what had been done in recent years in that direction. There was much interest shown, especially from Haverhill. The Haverhill board has made a request to the national government for a committee to ascertain whether a dam built at Amesbury, which would probably give to Haverhill 14 additional feet of water, would be feasible. Since then the New England corps of geodetic surveyors has been at work on the practicability of the scheme and will report at Washington in the fall on their results.

The last matter of discussion was relative to the sewage of the Merrimack Valley. Lawrence and Haverhill desire to use the water on account of the dearth of water and hence would divert the sewage from the Merrimack. No definite action was taken and all agreed that the matter will have to be settled by a commission appointed jointly from both states. The meeting adjourned at 4.10.

HARVARD'S RACE

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 25.—Harvard, rah, rah, rah, rah, rah. With a deafening din of steam whistles and horns and the frenzied shouts of collegians, the Harvard varsity eight shot their boat over the finish line last night, winning from the crippled and distanced Yale crew that classic of American collegiate aquatics, the Harvard-Yale varsity boat race. But instead of a race Harvard finished the last mile and a half alone, while far behind Yale limped along with but seven men at the oars, with Griswold, the stroke—the man who had been relied upon to set the winning pace—bent forward, limp, and collapsed with the terrific strain of the opening two miles. Up to this unexpected climax, it had been a stirring struggle, worthy of the best traditions of the old antagonists and with a fitting setting of a magnificent marine spectacle. For the first time, too, the president of the United States was taking keen and active interest as a champion of the Crimson colors and although compelled by circumstances to absent himself yesterday, the spirit of enthusiasm was voiced by the Roosevelt family who witnessed the contest from the deck of the presidential yacht. Old Eli had her distinguished champion, Secretary Taft, the central figure of a group of collegians aboard one of the observation trains, who shouted encouragement to the Yale crew as they sped over the early reaches of the course and then lapsed into glum dismay as Griswold was seen to fall overboard in the Yale boat. The race was rowed under the most favorable race conditions, just as the sun was setting over the picturesque Thames with the water broken only by ripples. The great steel drawbridge spanning the Thames marked the start of the race, with the finish at Red Top, four miles up stream. Just above the bridge were massed the main flotilla of pleasure craft. The Sylph, with the Roosevelt aboard had a point of vantage near the finish. Through the maze of craft the racers threaded their way, with a clear cut 300 feet wide, marked every half mile with red and blue standards. Yale had splashed at the start and Harvard had been able to push their boat slightly ahead. They hung nip and tuck, Harvard's starboard against Yale's port, through the roaring eddies of nervousness, screaming thousands. Half a mile from the start both crews were almost side by side, with Harvard a few feet to the fore; one mile, Harvard still ahead with Yale holding on doggedly; two miles, Yale surging and lessening the gap; two and a half miles, Harvard still in the lead, with open water between the boats and Yale fighting on like grim death.

Now came the decisive moment, with the final stretch almost in sight and the breathless throngs straining to see if Harvard would keep up the clip or would weaken at the close. Steadily on they came, when suddenly a commotion was observed in the Yale boat. As Griswold, the stroke, lunged forward over his oar and ceased to row.

For nearly a minute it seemed ten—the Yale stroke sat motionless, leaning forward as if lifeless. Then he was seen to straighten up and bend to his oar again, and a great shout went up from the Yale cohorts, as their crew was seen to pick up the stroke, and rally for another effort. But they were now six boat lengths behind, hopelessly beaten. Another twenty strokes and then the whole crew, disheartened at the fall of their leader, quit their work and sat dejected at their oars. Yale was out; it was no longer a race, and Harvard swung ahead alone still keeping up the racing clip and crossing the finishing line with a regular "swish swash" to the very end. As Harvard sped across the line, "boom, boom," and "loot, loot" went up in a deafening chorus from the myriad craft, while from bank to bank rolled a chorus of "Harvard, Yale, and from every truck and mainmast broke out the triumphant crimson and bewitching maze of kaleidoscopic color. Griswold had been helped from the Yale boat and lagging far behind the Harvard men the seven remaining rowers of the Yale crew at last made their appearance at the finish—a half mile behind Harvard, and from every truck and mainmast broke out the triumphant crimson and bewitching maze of kaleidoscopic color. Earlier in the day honors were divided, the Yale four defeating the Harvard four by two lengths and the Harvard freshmen eight defeating the Yale freshmen by three lengths.

TRIED TO ESCAPE

Four Prisoners Failed in Dash for Freedom

PORTLAND, Me., June 25.—The attempt of Miss St. Clair Francis and three other Maine prisoners to escape from a train running at 60 miles an hour was told here yesterday by United States Marshal Charles Haskell, who, with three guards, returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they went with the prisoners.

The plan to escape was engineered by Francis, who had carried a wire 14 inches long in his mouth, no one knows how long, with which the shackles which bound the prisoners' hands and feet were loosened.

The prisoners, aside from Francis, were William Huddle, Paul Ritcher and William Phelps, all pastoffice robbers.

The attempt to escape was made near Raleigh, N. C. At about 3 o'clock Saturday morning, while the guard's head was turned, Huddle made a dive for the passage leading to the Pullman car. The guard fired one shot and then gave chase. He caught Huddle just as he was lunging through a window in the smoking compartment.

While the guard was following Huddle the other prisoners had been pinned. Phelps and Huddle were entirely free from their shackles, having picked the locks with the wire Francis had carried in his mouth. That Francis and Ritcher were not free was due to the fact that one of the locks had become jammed and refused to open.

Huddle is from Montreal, where he served prison terms and has an unfinished term in the Maine state prison. Ritcher was arrested for postoffice breaking in Maine. Phelps was closely affiliated with Francis in some of his most daring doings. He was sentenced to six years in the Maine state prison on Feb. 10, 1905, at the same time that Francis was sentenced for 16 years for breaking open the Red Beach postoffice in Calais, Me., and shooting James Brown, night custodian of the mails. This was after he had escaped from Bridgewater and had terrorized New England.

BOSTON HELPLESS

TO SECURE GRAIN TRADE WITHOUT HELP OF RAILROADS.

The action of the White Star Line in withdrawing its five freight steamers from the New York service, owing to the decline of the trade of that port, and the efforts of the Boston chamber of commerce to secure a reduction in grain rates to this port, call attention once more to the futility of any attempt which New York and Boston, and especially Boston, may make to compete with Montreal and Portland for the export-grain traffic unless the railroads serving the two former ports come to their assistance.

A Secretary Morris of the chamber of commerce points out in his communication to the N. Y. Central officials of the present all-water rate from Port William delivered f. o. b. steamer at Montreal, including extra insurance, is 4.25 cents per bushel, as compared with 7.65 cents per bushel via Buffalo to Boston, while the lake and rail rate via Georgian Bay port to Montreal is 4.75 cents as compared with 7.65 cents via Buffalo to Boston. The result of this disparity is that, since the opening of navigation, Montreal has booked over 8,000,000 bushels of grain for export, whereas Boston has booked only 1,000,000 bushels in all. Under the circumstances the shipping facilities at this port promise to be further curtailed unless a larger amount of grain is brought through by the railroads.

Already the boats in the Boston service of the Leyland and White Star lines number only four, whereas they usually number seven or more at this time of year. In urging the New York Central to meet the competition of Montreal and Portland—for Portland has also been favored at the expense of Boston by the Grand Trunk, which makes a lake and rail rate via Georgian Bay port to Portland of 5.40 cents—the Chamber of Commerce makes a request which is altogether reasonable. And yet, it is to be feared that the Central will view the matter in a different light. We sincerely hope that our fears shall prove to have been unfounded, but experience leads us to believe that the first attempt is usually to convince the Central that it is as much for its own interest as that of Boston to grant lower rates to this port. The longer the Vanderbilts retain an interest in the transportation facilities to this port the stronger the evidence becomes that they are only incidentally engaged in promoting the welfare of Boston and Montreal and Portland, on the other hand, are served by railroads which are determined to leave nothing undone to advance the interests of those communities, so that while we continue to have this unseemly apathy on the part of the Central, it is idle to look for a restoration of Boston's grain trade. The only grain that has come to this port in the past has been the overflow from the northern ports, and this is all we can expect in the future.

J. P. MORGAN

SAILED FOR EUROPE ON LA PROVENCE.

NEW YORK, June 25.—J. P. Morgan sailed yesterday for Europe on the steamship La Provence. Asked about the financial situation he said he was optimistic. "There have been many improvements since by departure from here some months ago," he said. "The news of the death of Mr. Cleveland came to me as a great shock. Mr. Cleveland was indeed a great man."

"TOM" TAGGART

WANTS KERN FOR BRYAN'S RUNNING MATE.

DENVER, Colo., June 24.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national democratic committee, came to town yesterday bringing along a vice presidential nomination he put forth with much enthusiasm. "Bryan will be nominated on the first ballot without a doubt, and his running mate will be John W. Kern of Indiana." This was the greeting Mr. Taggart gave to newspapermen. Norman Mack of Buffalo, who arrived yesterday, is booming Lieutenant-Governor of New York for the vice presidential nomination.

SHERMAN BETTER IN POLICE COURT FIVE RAILROADS

Candidate Appears to Non-Support Case the Have Been Accused of be Improving Principal Item Discrimination

CLEVELAND, O., June 26.—"I feel fine this morning," was the greeting Dr. Carter received when he visited Rep. James Sherman at Lakeside hospital today.

"Doctor, when can I go home?" the patient asked.

He was assured that from present indications he could leave the hospital not later than Wednesday next. The vice-presidential nominee immediately began to plan for a conference with political friends at Tulsa on Friday, July 3.

Mr. Sherman had seven hours of refreshing sleep during the night and today his condition was about normal.

At a conference this morning between Dr. Carter and consulting physicians Drs. Allen and Stone, the greatest assurance was expressed as to the ultimate recovery of Mr. Sherman.

400 TO BE IN LINE

M. T. I. Will Parade in Worcester

The semi-annual election of officers of the Matthew Temperance Institute will take place at the meeting Sunday morning, and at present it looks as though there would be very few contests. Pres. John J. Coyne, whose work at the head of the institute the past term has been most commendable, will be re-elected without opposition. Vice Pres. Charles F. Sullivan, one of the institute's best hustlers, has declined a renomination for the position. Michael F. Boyle is a formidable candidate for the place and there may be others.

The committee on arrangements for the trip to Worcester on July 4th, to take part in the big temperance demonstration there, held a meeting last evening and completed all arrangements for the trip. Interest in the event is great in the society, and if the weather is fair over 400 members will probably be in line representing Lowell. A prominent member said today that it looks as though about 1000 Lowellians would also make the trip with the cold water boys.

BAD ACCIDENT

Mrs. Chas. L. Charron Met With Injury

Mrs. Charles L. Charron, wife of Rev. Mr. Charron, pastor of the French Congregational church, and Miss Martel, residing at 75 June street, flung in a runaway accident this morning and had a narrow escape from being hurt. Mrs. Charron was cut and scratched about the face and head, but not seriously injured while Miss Martel escaped without a scratch.

The two ladies were in a carriage coming down Thirteenth street about eleven o'clock this morning when the horse attached to the carriage they were in took fright at the playing of a hurdy hurdy and made a dash down the hill. Near the corner of Bridge street the carriage was overturned and the occupants thrown out.

The ambulance was summoned, but before it arrived on the scene Dr. Boyden H. Pillsbury passed in his automobile and took the women to Miss Martel's home in June street. He also dressed Mrs. Charron's wounds.

The horse continued on its mad run through Hampshire street, but was captured before it did any damage.

HAD AMMUNITION

ELEVEN MEXICANS WERE PLACED UNDER ARREST

EL PASO, Tex., June 26.—Eleven Mexicans were arrested yesterday charged with fomenting a revolution against a friendly power upon American soil. A search of the building in which they were taken revealed two cases containing rifles and revolvers and also one thousand rounds of ammunition. Letters and literature said to be incriminating were found also. Among the letters were said to be several from Antonio Villalob and Flores Nagon, two alleged revolutionists whom the Mexican government recently sought to extradite from the United States.

FLAGGED TRAIN

And Prevented Serious Accident

BOSTON, June 26.—A south bound elevated train on the Atlantic avenue circuit was flagged just in time today when a freight car on the street below jumped its track and ripped away one of the posts supporting the L track. When the employees of the elevated at the State street station felt the structure tremble and saw the rails sag they realized instantly the nature of the accident. Seizing signal flags two employees ran down the tracks in either direction. The man on the south bound track ran a hundred yards when he stopped a train in time to prevent a serious accident. Traffic on both tracks was delayed for some time.

STAR THEATRE

The new songs, "Sweet Sixteen" is sung by Babe Curry and "Dear Old Manhattan Isle" made a great hit yesterday. These songs have a catchy swing and deserve to become popular. They will be sung the remainder of the week.

The pictures were some of the finest ever seen and today some of the same class were given. The comedy is exceptionally funny.

Tony Mack contributes a generous share toward making the show a good one. That his efforts are appreciated is signified by the many recalls he receives.

This house is becoming more and more popular with the ladies who make up the larger part of its audience. Many of Lowell's better class of people attend, and find it a pleasant place for an evening's entertainment. The house is always cool.

NEW PINEHURST PARK.

On next Sunday at Pinehurst park, the popular, cool and shady summer resort located in Billerica, there will be a free band concert at three o'clock in the afternoon. In the evening in the beautiful rustic theatre of the park a select moving picture and vaudeville program will be given.

The grounds of and surrounding the park have been beautified and present a very inviting appearance.

Tomorrow afternoon the French societies of this city will hold a picnic at the park and it is expected that about ten car loads of people will attend.

The Lowell party will be met at the park by the French societies of Cambridge, Mass. A varied list of sports will be run off, the spacious grounds being ideal for such a picnic.

The management will make a specialty of attending to picnics and the grounds can be secured in advance. It is the intention of the management to make the park a leading summer resort in New England.

The park can be reached by taking the Boston car via Woburn, the fare being 10 cents from Lowell.

Free admission to the park.

NINTH REGIMENT

Repulsed the "Enemy"
After Hard Fight

FORT REVERE, June 25, 11 p. m.—After two hours of desperate fighting Companies E and I of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., have saved this post from the hands of the "enemy."

Shortly after dark there came a shot from a vigilant sentry on the eastern outpost. A few moments later the other outposts came running in and reported that the "enemy" was advancing in force from the direction of Stony Beach.

The call to arms rang out and the boys in brown had barely time to grasp their rifles before the "enemy" was clashing up the hill.

When the smoke of battle had cleared away, an account of damages revealed but one fatality. One private slipped into a gully during the excitement of the moment and left part of his brown canvas trousers behind him. Fortunately the moon was not very bright and he succeeded in rescuing the missing portion under heavy fire.

The "enemy" comprised Companies B and H of the Ninth, and they deserve great credit for their excellent work as such. All other things being equal and their numbers the same the odds are all in favor of the defenders, yet the attacking party came very near winning.

There was another assault earlier in the day, with Companies H and I attacking. It was a stirring scene and a great crowd gathered on the water tower hill to witness the exciting work laid out below in a grand panorama.

First Lieutenant C. F. Leonard of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., went out with the "enemy" and Captain D. G. Barry, Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., was adviser for the defenders, who were declared the successful side.

WON REGULARS' COMMENDATION. Owing to a shortage of ammunition, it was impossible to get the best results, but the way the "enemy" advanced won the commendation of the regulars.

"They are doing fine work," said one of the instructors to the Post correspondent. "The way the 'enemy' crawled along taking advantage of every bit of protection, was excellent. And then did you notice how they charged in small squads a short distance and then dropped for cover while the rest were firing to protect their advance?"

During the afternoon the volunteer infantry were engaged in studying trenches and similar work. Tomorrow they will have one of the most interesting days of the tour of camp duty. A special problem has been devised by the corps of instructors, and the officers and men of the militia must work it out, as if it were a case of actual war.

Similar work has been performed by the other Ninth regiment companies at the various harbor forts today.

Companies 7 and 11 of the coast artillery corps were given a fire command drill at Fort Revere. At Fort Banks and Heath and Fort Andrews similar work was done.

Companies 2 and 6 at Fort Strong, and Companies 1, 3 and 4, stationed at Fort Warren, had their anxiously anticipated service practice. The 13th shot from the 10-inch rifles of Battery Hitchcock at Fort Strong smashed the target nearly five miles away into bits. The last two had to be shot without a target.

AT BELLE GROVE

ENJOYABLE DANCE BY THE IDEAL CLUB.

Belle Grove was the scene last evening of a most successful and enjoyable social and dance under the auspices of the Ideal Social club. It was the second event of the kind in the history of the club and the club members have good and sufficient cause to feel proud of the splendid success that attended their second social and dance.

Special cars were run from this city and Lawrence and there were guests present from Boston, Nashua, Lawrence and Haverhill. There were 250 couples present and a general good time was enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Calumet orchestra and the dance order contained sixteen numbers.

The affair was officiated as follows: Aaron Peterlosky, general manager; Miss Ethel Hacker, assistant general manager; Benjamin Hammer, floor director; Miss Hattie Learman, assistant floor director; Aaron L. Berenson was chief aid and he was assisted by Sophie Stein, Fannie Barlofsky, Ida Paresky, Annie Paresky, David Salovitch, Joseph Simons, Julius Berenson and Maurice Pearlman.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Thomas H. Erwin and Miss Anna K. Parker were united in the holy bonds of marriage Wednesday at 6 o'clock at the parochial residence of St. Patrick's church by Rev. John J. McHugh.

The bride was prettily attired in white silk crepe de chine trimmed with Irish point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, tied with white ribbon. The bride, Miss Nancy S. Parker, sister of the bride, wore a similar dress and carried carnations tied with pink ribbon. The best man was Mr. John Leahy, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, and later a delicious supper was served to a host of immediate friends. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and the grounds illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin were the recipients of a wealth of beautiful and costly presents including cut glass, silver, etc. They left on the 9:30 train amid a shower of confetti and with the best wishes of all their friends. After a short tour during which they will visit New York and the western states, they will reside at 334 Central street.
